Pavshiy

A young man known to social media users under the nickname Pavshiy (it reads like the fallen) can claim to be a mysterious performer. He is among those who never show their face.

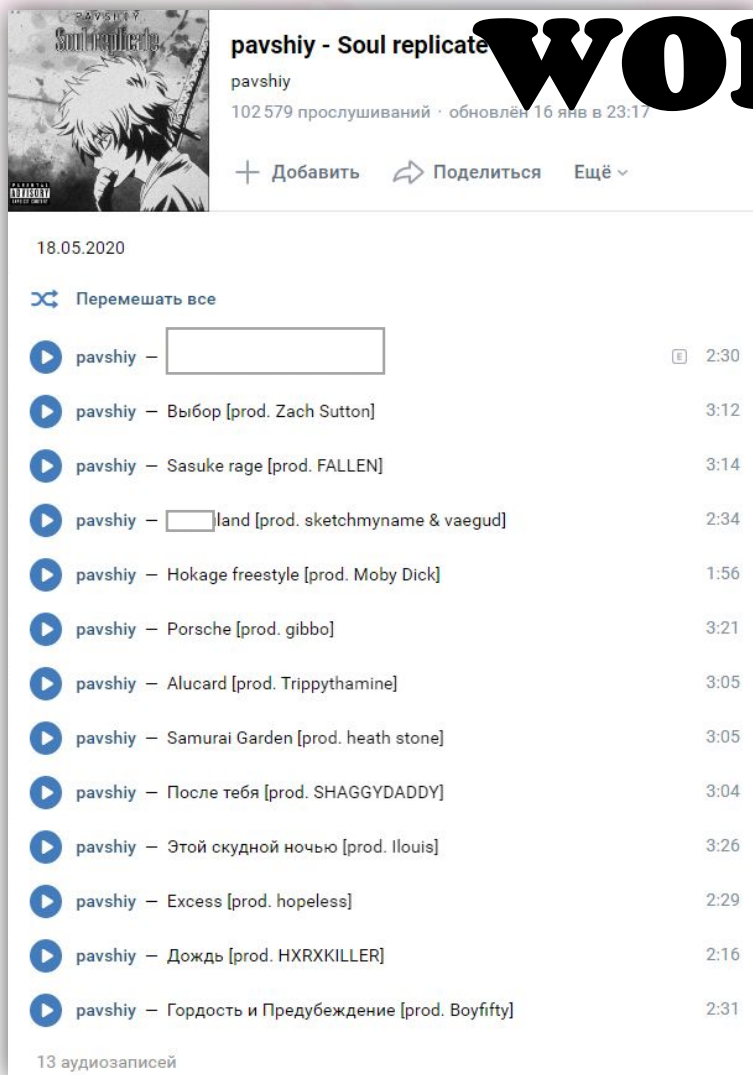

I really like the work of a young singer from Kiev Boris Pavshiy. The songs of this artist touch me with their sincerity. They are very touching and a little naive. When I listen to such compositions, it seems to me as if the musician wrote them specifically for me.

Borya has a pleasant gentle voice, which adds even more charm to the singer's image.

Early solo work

His work can be traced through his social networks and music venues, where pavshiy posted new items. New items are, of course, far from new, known to his fans since 2020. Among these tracks are:

♪ ☆ あ « ShadowFiend »
♪ ☆ あ « Pride and Warning »
♪ ☆ あ « Rain »
♪ ☆ あ « Akatsuki »

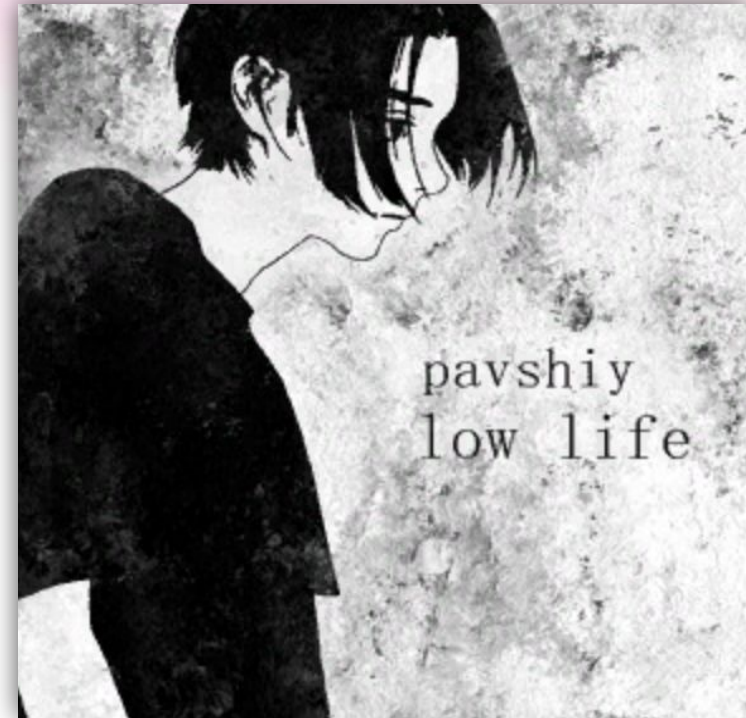

About the last track, as soon as it appeared on the web, many comments immediately appeared in one word: "Masterpiece!"
