

George V

English king and monarch.

- The king of great Britain and Ireland and Northern Ireland George V Was prepared by the pupil of 9 "D" class Ananidze Dmitry Pedigree Born in 1865, was named George Frederick Ernest Albert. His father Edward VII, mother Alexandra of Denmark. During the First world war George V renounced all personal and family German titles and changed the name of the Royal house from Saxe-Coburg-Gotha to Windsor.

He was second son of Eduard VII. His mother was queen Alexandra Danish.

Family of George VII

