

Sights of London

What is London

- London is the capital of Great Britain, its political, economic and cultural centre. It is one of the largest cities in the world. Its population is more than 11 000 000 people. London is situated on the river Thames. The city is very old and beautiful. It was founded more than two thousand years ago. Traditionally London is divided into several parts: the City, the Westminster, the West End and the East End. The City is the oldest part of London, its financial and business centre. The Westminster is the aristocratic official part of London. It includes Buckingham Palace,

- In London there are a lot of sights. Now I will tell you about some of them.

- The first sight I am going to tell you.

Madame Tussaud's Life-size Figures of Famous People

The logo for Madame Tussauds, featuring the name in a gold, cursive script on a dark red background. A small gold star is positioned at the end of the word "Tussauds".

Madame
Tussauds ★

- Every visitor to London knows who is Madame Tussaud's. And almost every visitor has seen her, an old lady of 81, standing at the entrance of her own exhibition. She is made of wax, like all the models of people in this museum. “200 Years” room covers the history of Madame Tussaud’s over the last two centuries. There are also other rooms, such as “Legends and Superstars”, rooms with singers, the members of royal families, and political leaders. There is the “Chamber of Horrors” which amuses visitors very much. “The Wax Museum” is a magnificent journey through London. It’s not easy to tell about all interesting things one can see in the museum. This is the place that is worth visiting.
