

A Visit to the Museum of Sergey Yesenin in Tashkent

I invite you to visit
the wonderful museum.
I think this museum
is worth visiting.

Now you are in the museum of Sergei Yesenin. It is in the centre of our city. The museum was opened in Tashkent in 1981. The fans of the great Russian poet have been visiting it for twenty-five years .

Let's go on a tour of the museum's halls...

In this hall of the museum
you can see the original autographs of S. Yesenin.

Look at the rare editions
of the poet's works .

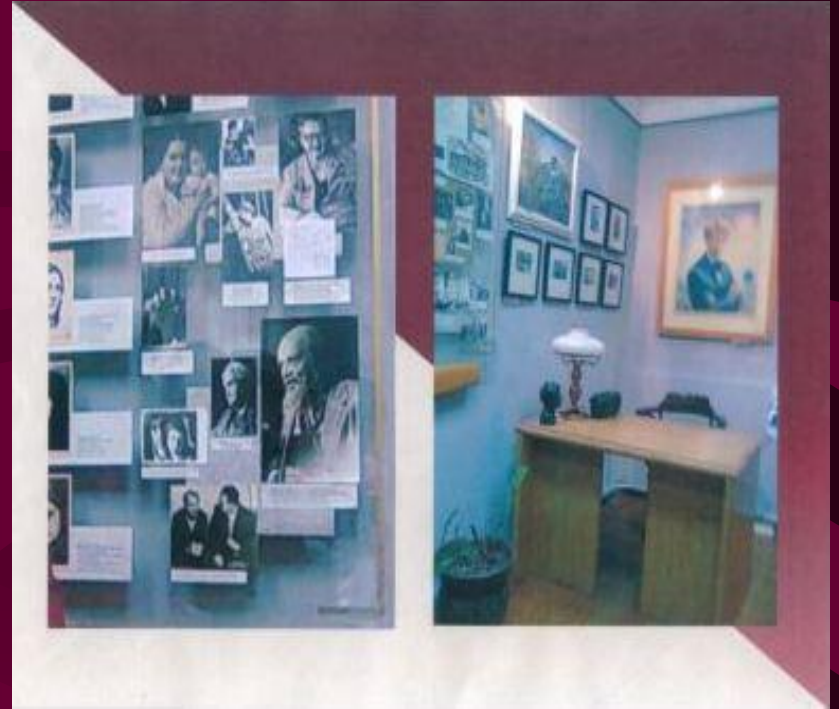

For example: "Radunitsa " , 1916

Here there are some books
with notes of the poet's sisters
and Galina
Benislavskaya

Now you can enjoy some unique pictures
of the great Russian poet.

This sitting-room , a typical old Russian home in Tashkent, was recreated from the household items donated by people of Tashkent.

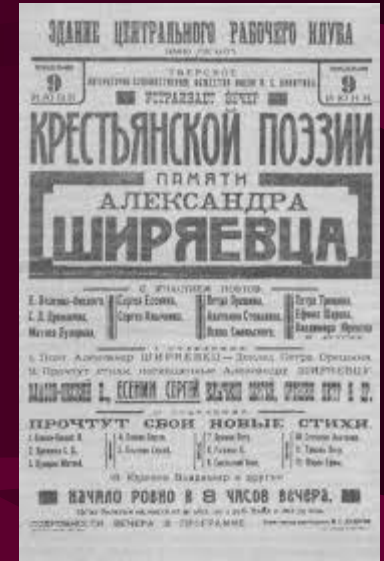

And now you have a rare opportunity to listen to the records with a voice of the poet

In this room there are some poems of Yesenin
in Uzbek translation.
It was done by the Uzbek
national poet
Erkin Vahidov .
Here you can also find the poet's books in other languages.
They show a great love and interest in the biography of the Russian poet.

It is also interesting to look at the rare editions of the local poets of the twenties.

In the museum you can watch the slide film "S. Yesenin and the East ", created by the museum's director V. Nikoliuk.

In our museum you can take part in different literary and musical evenings, concerts, contests and exhibitions , meet interesting people.

We invite you to participate in these exciting events!
