

Salvador Dali and his life

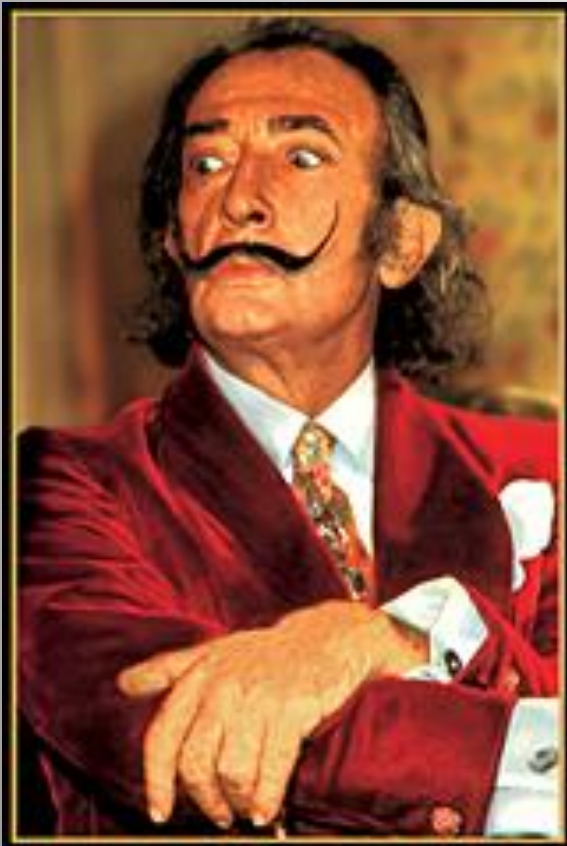

Дмитриев Виктор
Liceum № 344
10 b

2011

Full name:

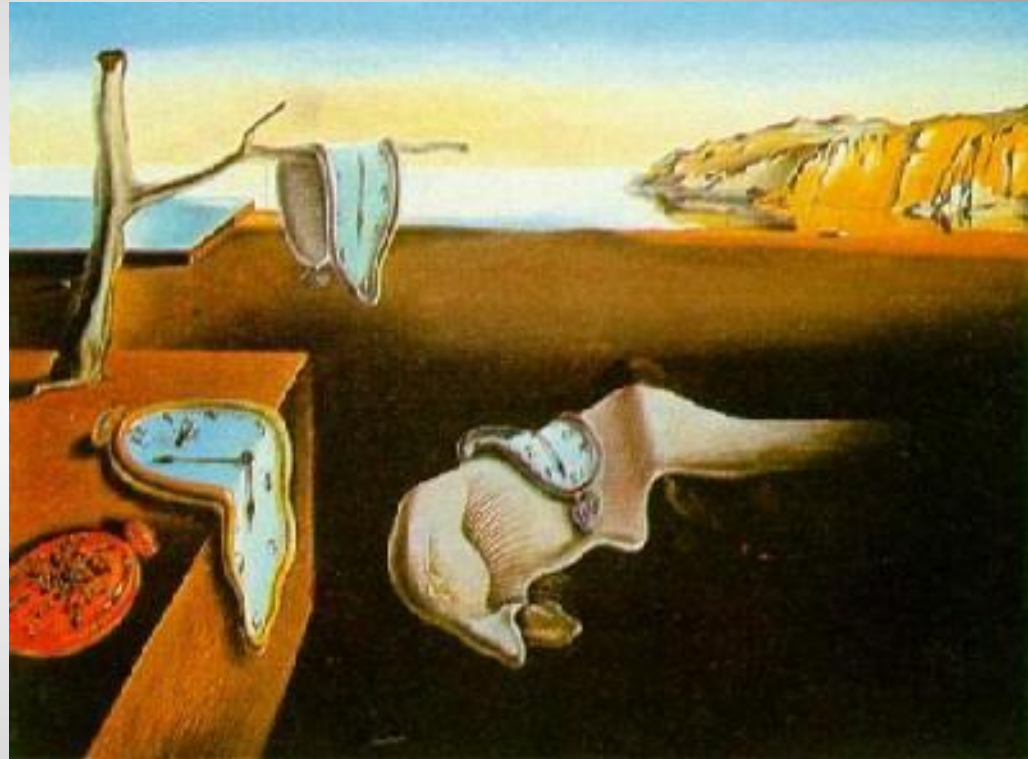

Salvador Domènec Felip Jacint Dalí i
Domènech, Marquis of Dalí de Púbol

Was born on May 11, 1904,
Died on January 23, 1989

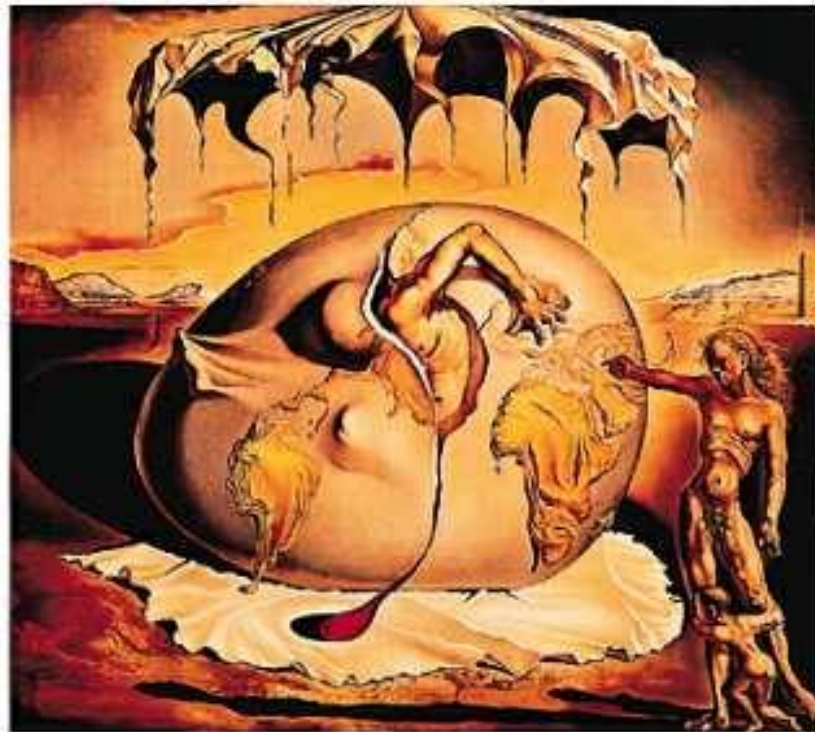

Artist

- Salvador Dali is most famous for his surreal paintings.

1904:

- Born on 11 May in Figueres. Son of the notary public Salvador Dalí Cusí and his wife Felipa Domènech Ferrés.

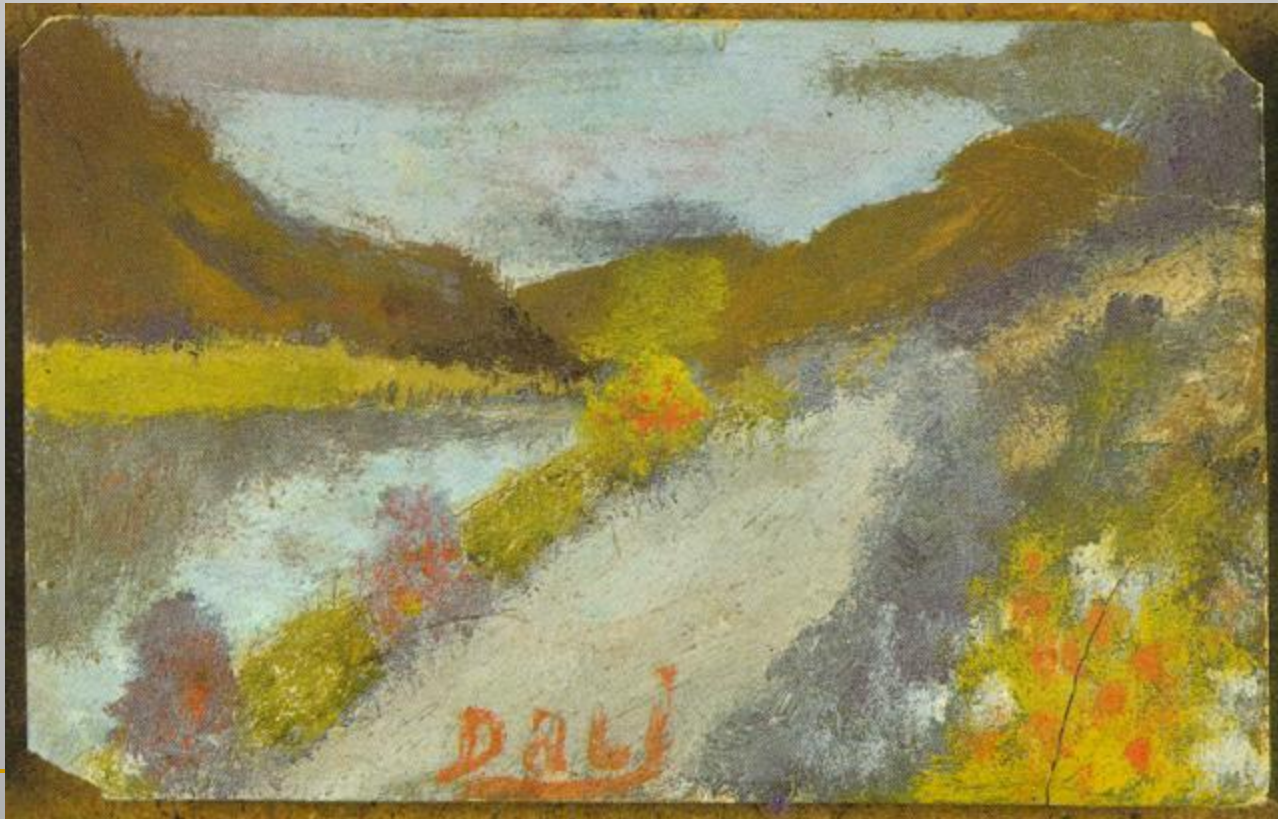

1910:

- Salvador's father decided to enroll him at the Hispano-French School of the Immaculate Conception in Figueres, where he learned French.

1916:

- Salvador spent time at an estate owned by the Pichot family, a family of intellectuals and artists.
- It was there that he discovered Impressionism.

1921:

- Salvador's mother died in February. The following year, his father married Catalina Domènech Ferrés, his sister-in-law.

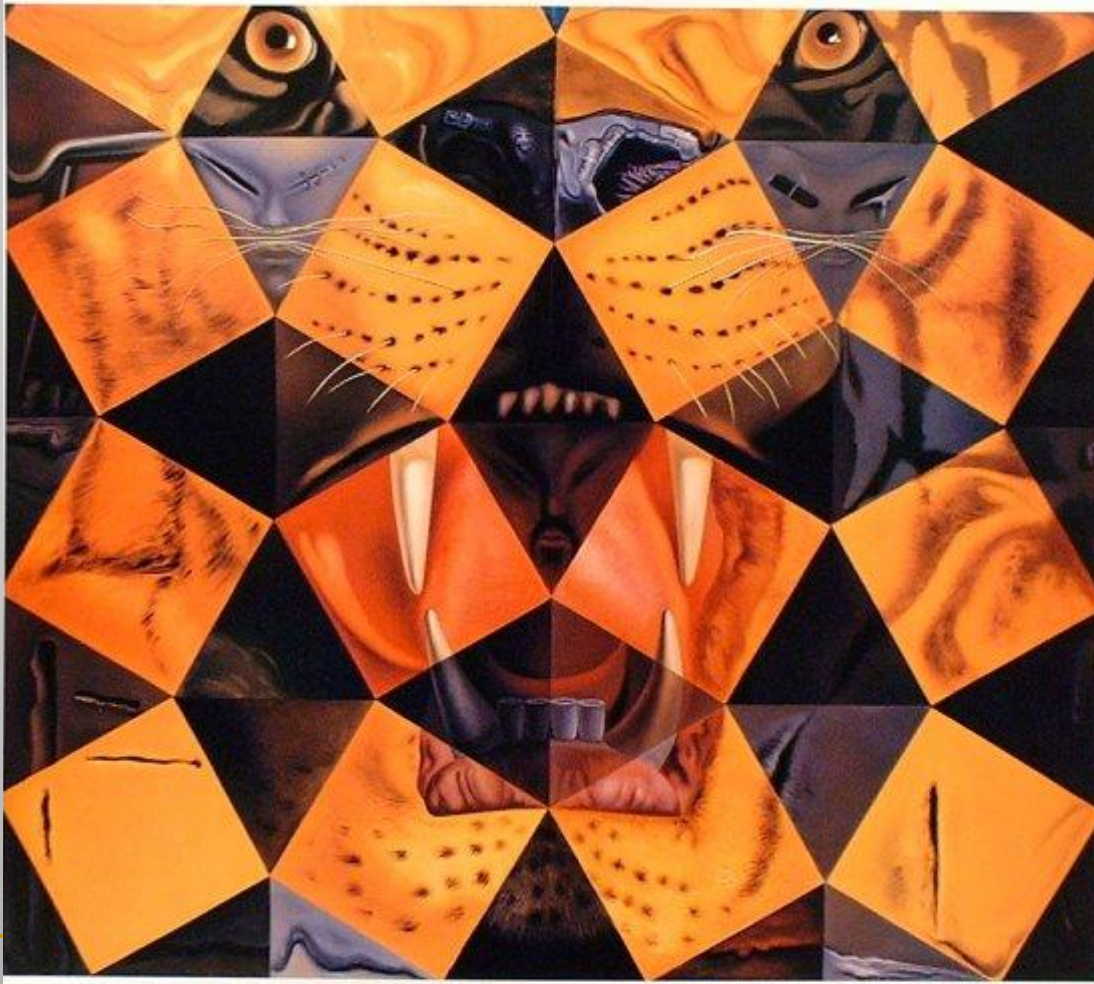

1923:

- He was expelled from the Academia de San Fernando, accused of having led a student protest.

1925:

- Salvador presented his first individual art exhibit.

1927:

- He held his second individual exhibition in Barcelona.

1929:

- Salvador met his future wife, Gala, who was married to another man.

1934:

- Marries Gala. Traveled to America for the first time.

SALVADOR DALÍ - BACCHANALE

1937:

- In February he met the Marx Brothers in Hollywood. Along with Harpo, he began work on the script for a film entitled Giraffes on Horseback Salad (but called in its latest version The Surrealist Woman), which was never actually produced.

1939:

- In May he signed a contract to take part in the World's Fair of New York. He designed the Dream of Venus pavilion, which was presented in the Fair's amusement zone.

1944:

- In Life magazine he published an article entitled “Nightmare Journey” and created a cover for Vogue.

1945:

- He went to Hollywood to work with Alfred Hitchcock on the film Spellbound, whose dreamlike sequences were created by Dalí.

1946:

- Designed covers for EtCetera magazine and the Christmas issue of Vogue.
- Walt Disney hired Dalí to help produce the film Destino.

1955:

- He made the Portrait of Laurence Olivier in the Role of Richard III, to promote the film Richard III, based on the work by Shakespeare.

1969:

- Dalí purchased Púbol Castle and decorated it for Gala. Various books illustrated by Dalí were published: Goethe's Faust and Alice's Adventures in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll.

1989:

- Dalí died at Torre Galatea on 23 January.

Works Cited List

"Dalí, Salvador." Encyclopædia Britannica.
2008. Encyclopædia Britannica Online
School Edition.28 Apr. 2008
<<http://www.school.eb.com/eb/article-9028592>>.

Thank you!
