

Billionaire without billion

- He is the founder Duty Free. He 81 years old, he had made a fortune of $ 7.5 billion . He does not have the car , flies economy class , lives in a rented apartment . Chuck Feeney have electronic clock for 15 bucks and a crumpled shirt. In their historic homeland in Ireland, it easily mistaken for an American tourist .

- The money was spent on education, health, science , the content of nursing homes in the United States , Vietnam, Australia, South Africa, Ireland , Bermuda . He's not going to stop , and plans to 2016 to give to the cause of his remaining money .

- Chuck Feeney - an amazing person . Starting his business from the bottom, he was able to put together a few years the company of 200 employees in 27 countries. Its revenues increased at a tremendous rate , although most of them immediately went his charitable foundation The Atlantic Philanthropies.

- "I am convinced that much more fun to get when you give money and see how something comes through them , such as a hospital. It is logical - to invest in good deeds , and not put in a bank account and allows you to collect and accumulate "- says Feeney

