When the athlete with the clown run up to a rope holding a balloon, that it is free, dangles on a wind (later again will be constantly tense).

When Oz departs on a sphere, barrels about a fence disappear and there is any rectangular chest.

Approaching to a cage, Oz takes the right hand of a distant pigeon from us, but on a close up it gets the neighbor turned.

At Theodor's appearance the gusting wind blows. When Glinda turns to the people to say something, the wind continues to blow her in a face already on the other hand.

□ Interestingly the explosion arranged with Teoroda turned out. Above small groups bricks lie as driven while other bricks scatter under different corners (including people whom rejects a shock wave).
