

What is your style of dressing?

- My style of dressing is...
- I've got used to wearing something ...
- I like clothes to be...
- I like to look...
- It's very rare for me to wear something...
- I try to avoid wearing ... things.

elegant classical official stylish individual (special)

bright

trendy (fashionable)

casual simple (ordinary) natural

loud

quiet

What do you take into account as far as clothes are concerned?

- The factor of prime importance for me is...
- What really matters to me is...
- What I really value is...
- It's important to mind...
- I can't but keep in mind...
- I mostly take into consideration...
(comfort, quality, fashion, price)

Comfort

- to feel comfortable
- to suit (fit) me
- to become to me
- to be easy to put together
- to be accepted by my peers
- to look an average teen
- to be an essential part of any teenager's wardrobe
- to look cool and tough
- to keep up with my friends

Quality

- to invest in good quality clothes
- to buy things which go for years (last long)

Fashion

- to keep up with the latest fashion
- to be in vogue
- to be up-to-date
- to be all the rage
- to be out of fashion
- to go out of fashion

Price

- expensive
- cheap
- to afford

- Whom do you support: fashion victims or comfort-(quality)- lovers?
- Are the brand-name or designers' clothes worth the money?
- Do you like to show off (to stand apart from the crowd, to differ from other people)?
- Who helps you choose clothes? Do you trust your mother's taste? Do you follow your friends' advice?
- You should understand what suits a particular occasion. Do you agree?

If you dress for work or studies (for a beach holiday, for a party, for leisure, for an official occasion...) you should look ... and so you'd better put on...