

Presentation

Cats

Выполнила:
ученица 7М класса
школы № 21
Маточкина Екатерина

The types of Cats

Wild Cats

Domestic Cats

Large Cats

Middle Cats

Small Cats

Wild Large Cats

Lions

Tigers

Leopard

Jaguars

Lions

Lions live in groups.
They prefer hunting:

- in the open places;
- in groups.

Then they protect their extractions.

An inhabitancy: Africa,
North India.

Tigers

- Tigers are striped cats. They are the biggest in the world.
- They live and hunt along.
- Tiger Kills his victim in the forest and enjoys his extraction slowly.
- An inhabitancy: Central Asia, South-East Asia.

TYPES OF TIGERS:

Amur Tiger

Royal Tiger

Bengalese Tige

Leopard

- Leopard is a big cat.
It never grows.
- It lives along.
- It is very strong and can pursue his extraction very long.
- An inhabitancy:
Africa, South and Central Asia.

Middle cats

Lynxes

Pumas

Cheetahs

Lynxes

- They are single hunters.
- They are very active in twilight and at night.
- Hunting on hears, small birds.
- An inhabitancy: the forests of Europe, Central and Northern America.

Pumas

- They live alone.
- Every animal has its own territory of life.
- Hunting on birds, deers, small mammals.
- An inhabitancy:
Western part of The Northern America and South America.

Cheetahs

- They are one of the fastest mammals in the world.(His speed is nearly 90 km/h).
- Hunting on gazelles, antelopes, guinea fowls.
- An inhabitancy:
Central and South Africa.

Small Cats

Otselot

- Spotty wild cats
- Hunting on birds and small mammals.
- An inhabitancy:
Northern, Central and South America.

Domestic Cats

- Live at home
- Types: Persian, Siamese, Egyptian Mau, Burmese, British Royal, Russian Blue etc.
- An inhabitancy: everywhere.

Thank you very much for your attention!

