

Maryinsky Park

Maryinsky Park is one of the oldest parks in Kiev. It now hosts two important buildings

The Verchovna Rada

Maryinsky Palace

Maryinsky palace is an architectural pearl of Kiev

The palace is surrounded by the picturesque Maryinsky Park with lots of fountains and monuments

The palace itself was constructed in the Middle of the 18th century.

The most impressive part Of the palace is the south Facade with statues of Charity and Justice

It was built in baroque style by architect
Rastrelli

МАНАРИЯ

During its history the palace served as the residence for high guests. The White Hall is situated in the middle of the Palace and connected by archs with the entrance hall.

The Green Living-room and Banquet Hall are attached
To the entrance hall from both sides

During excursion you will walk through the famous rooms and halls of the palace, including those that are usually closed for regular visitors.

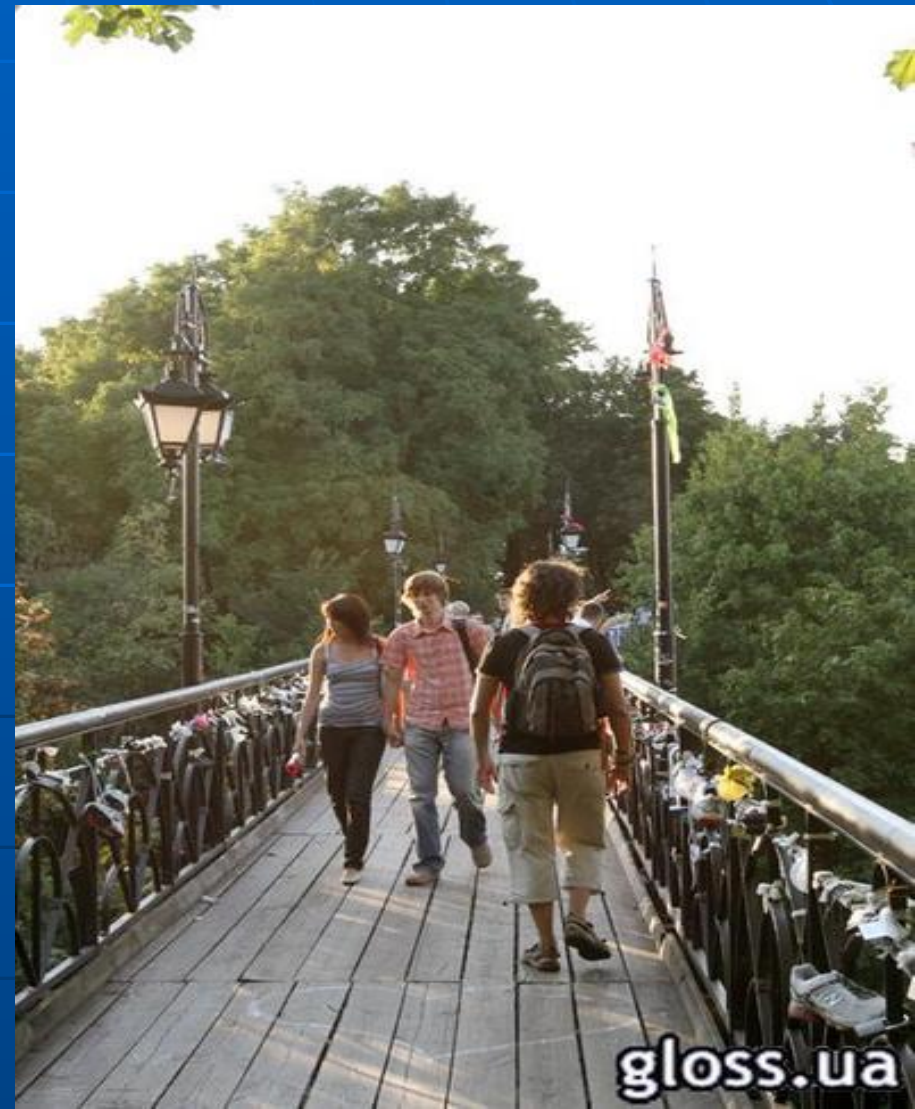

МАНЕРИЯ

Today the park also boasts a stage for frequent concerts and performances and also children's

The park gradually ambles into the City Garden which hosts Dynamo Kyiv's "Lobanovsky" stadium and the ultra-romantic Lovers Bridge.

A photograph of a park scene. A paved path leads from the bottom left towards the center. The path is flanked by lush green grass and tall, mature trees with dense foliage. Sunlight filters through the leaves, creating a bright, warm glow in the upper left corner. A black lamppost stands near the path. In the background, a stone wall and a bench are visible. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and scenic.

That's why I love
Maryinsky Park.
It is shady with old Linden trees, maples
And chestnuts.
