

So, Ann is in Great Britain.

So, Ann is in Great Britain.

What will Ann do if the weather is nice?

She will go to Brighton if the weather ... wonderful.

1. is

2. was

3. will be

She will go to Brighton if the weather is wonderful.

She will go boating if it ... hot and sunny.

1. was

2. is

3. will be

She will go boating if it is hot and sunny.

She will go swimming if the sea
... warm.

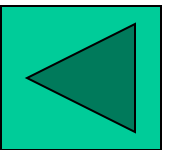

1. will be

2. was

3. is

She will go swimming if the sea is warm.

But what will she do if the weather is dreadful?

If the weather forecast is terrible,
she ... at home.

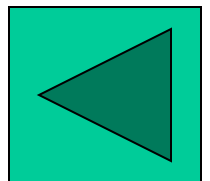

1. will stay

2. stays

3. stayed

If the weather forecast is terrible, she will stay home.

If there is rain, she ... books at home.

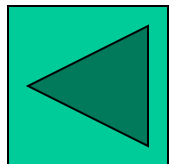

1. read

2. will read

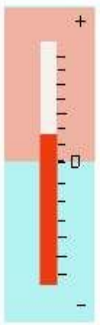

3. reads

If there is rain, she will read books at home.

If the temperature is only 10 degrees above zero, she ... TV at home.

1. watches

2. watched

3. will watch

If the temperature is only 10 degrees above zero, she will watch TV at home.

That is not correct.

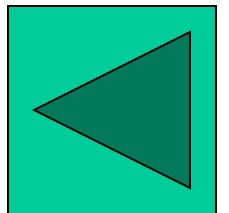

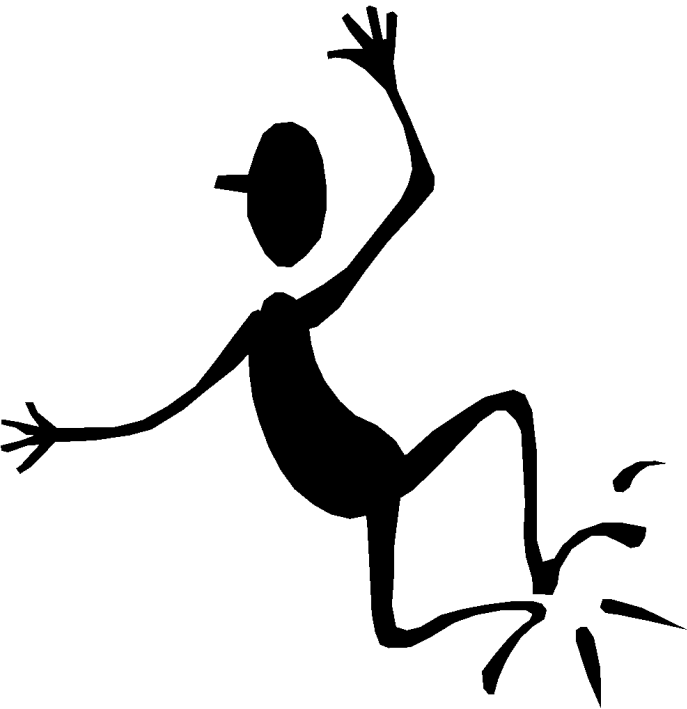

Try again!

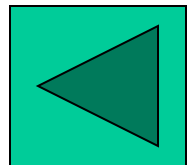

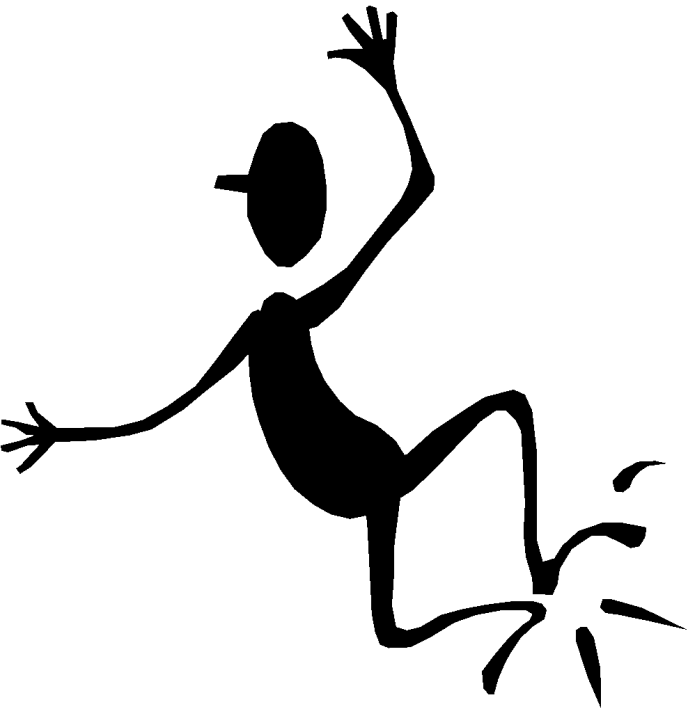

That's correct!

Well done!

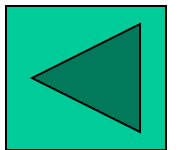

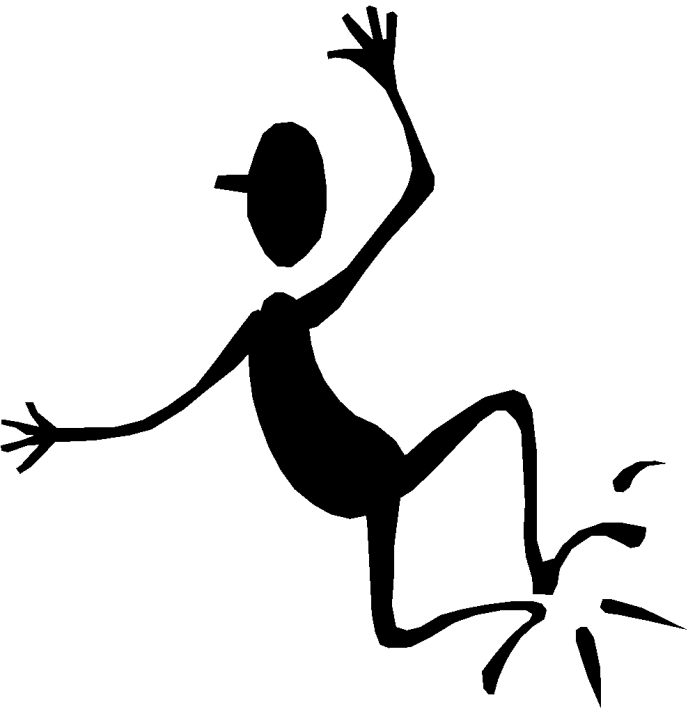

That's correct!

Well done!

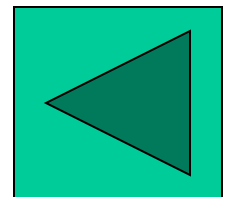

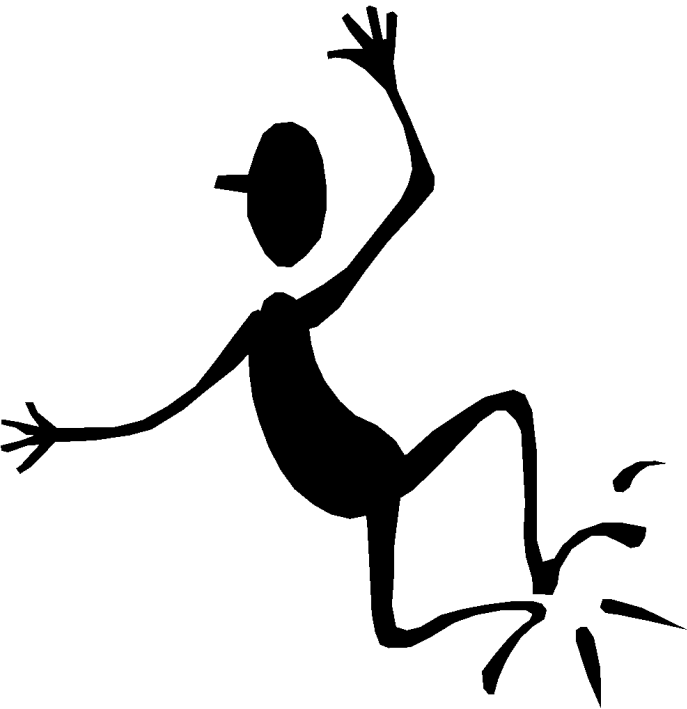

That's correct!

Well done!

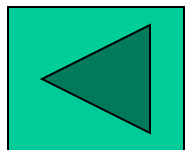

That's correct!

Well done!

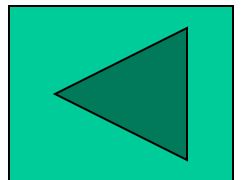

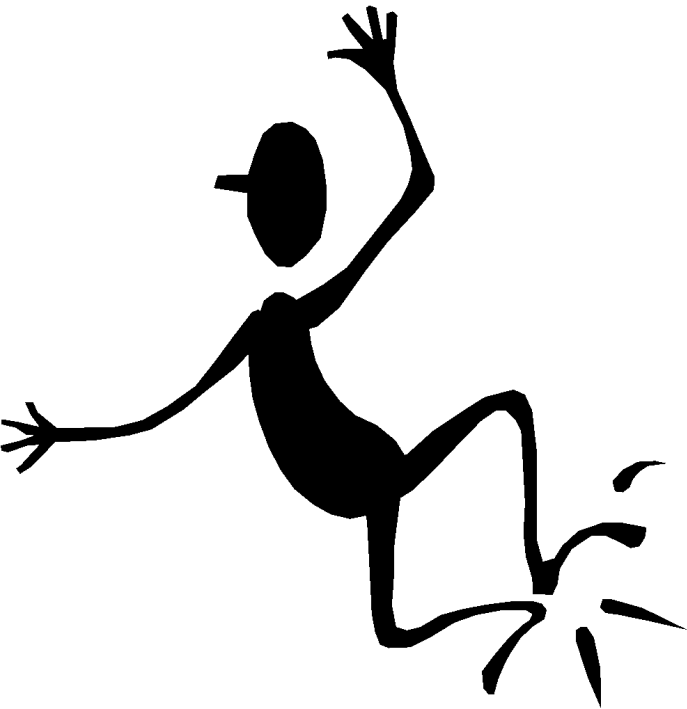

That's correct!

Well done!

That's correct!

Well done!

Nice work!

Thank you!

