

SABANTUI IS A NATIONAL HOLIDAY OF BASHKIR
PEOPLE.

Sabantui is a yearly national festival held in spring when the fields are ploughed up and sown with corn.

Handsome horses and their owners
gallop
across the maidan for racing.

If one succeeds
in breaking a pot, he wins a prize!

PEOPLE
TAKE PART IN THE
SACK RACE
WITH PLEASURE.

If only
not to fall in the sack
beating!

Women especially like the races with a yoke and two buckets, though men, too, take part in it.

Wrestling
shows the strongest man of the village.

A ram is reserved to the strongest wrestler!
