

Why we read books in English?

Ann Gorobzova
Nastya Kudryashova
Form 7B

We read books in English because:

- We wanted to make our knowledge of English better
- We learn a lot of new words and phrases
- It makes our speech better
- It makes our grammar better
- We learn about people`s manners in Britain
- We learn about different customs and traditions in Britain

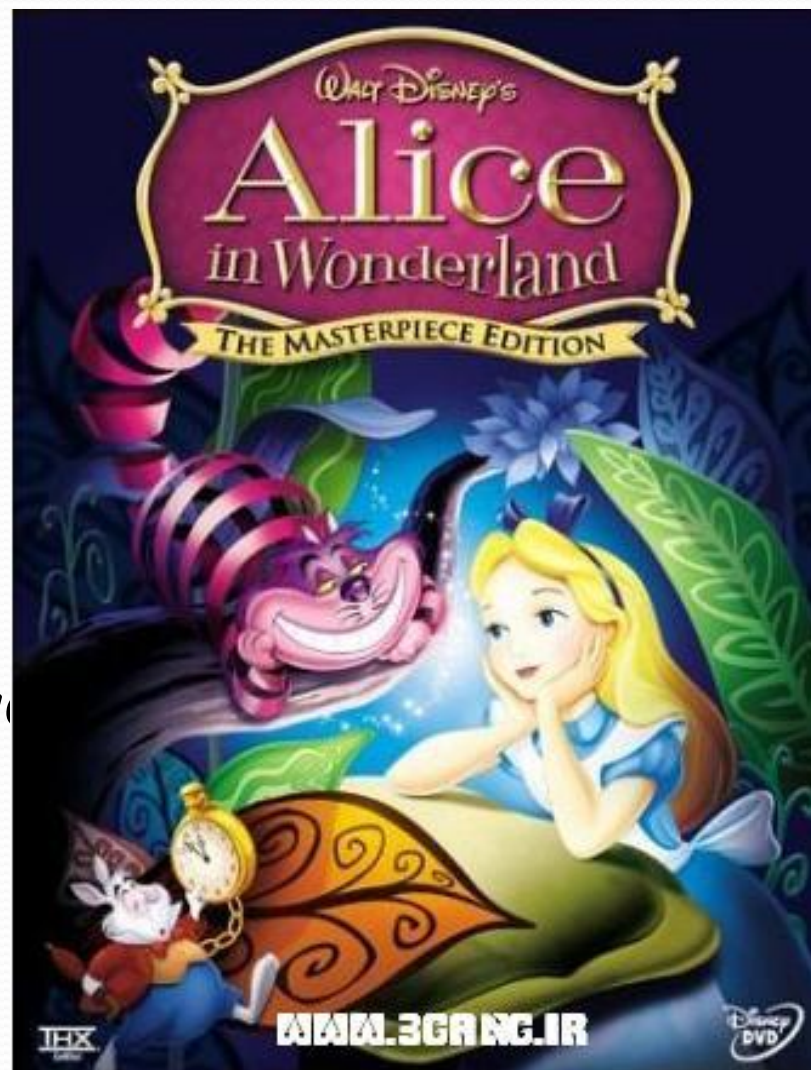

Favorite book

There are a lot of interesting books all over the world.

But we think that the most interesting book is «Alice in Wonderland».

It is a very exciting book.

It is a very famous story and we are sure that everybody has read it or seen a screening.

A little about the book

«Alice in wonderland» was written in 1865 by the English author Charles Lutwidge Dodgson under the pseudonym Lewis Carroll. It tells us about a girl named Alice who falls down a rabbit hole into a fantasy world populated by fairy creatures. The story is popular with adults as well as children.

Thanks for your attention

