

Taganrog

Taganrog - the large industrial, cultural and scientific center, one of leading seaports in the south of Russia. It is located in southwest part of the Rostov region on the bank of Taganrog Bay of the Sea of Azov, in 50 km from the Russian-Ukrainian border.

TAGANROG IS LOCATED IN SOUTHWEST PART OF THE ROSTOV REGION ON THE NORTHEAST COAST OF TAGANROG BAY OF THE SEA OF AZOV, IN 50 KM FROM A PLACE OF A CONFLUENCE OF THE RIVER DON IN IT. THE CITY SETTLES DOWN ON THE CAPE WHICH IS FAR PRESSING IN THE SEA; FROM THREE PARTIES IT IS SURROUNDED WITH WATER.

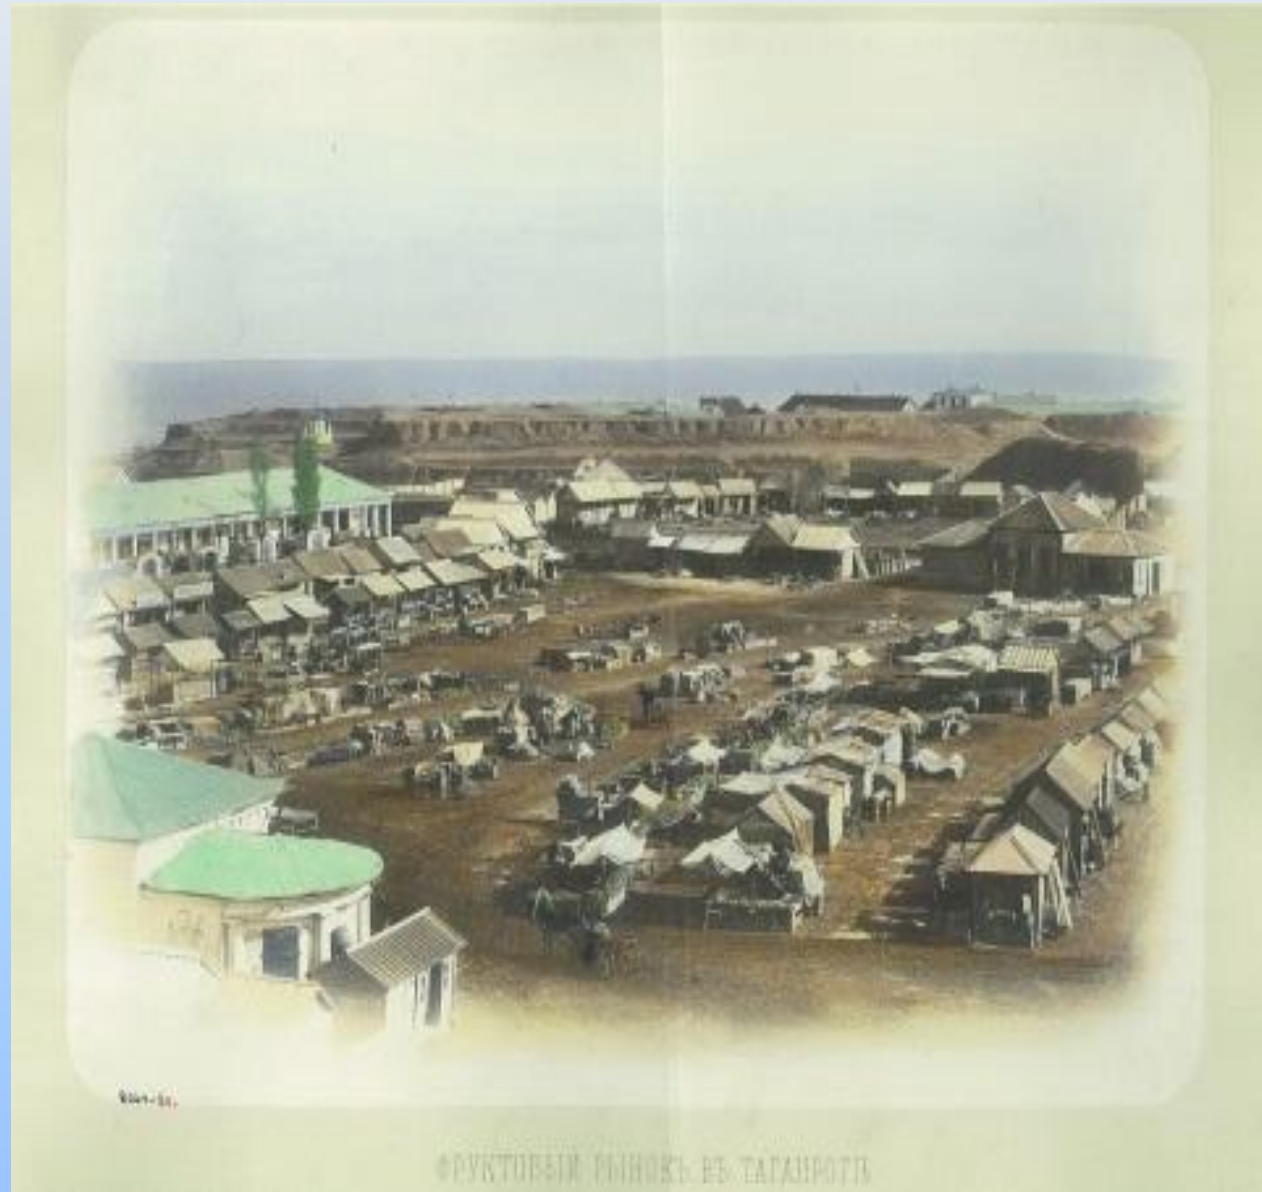

(c) eeehh.livejournal.com

(c) eeehh.livejournal.com

At the end of XVIII - the beginning of the XIX century Taganrog develops as the trade city, becomes the multinational city where various religious faiths were presented. Taganrog was almost only point of the South of the country, suitable for broad trade with the abroad. Up to the 60th of the 19th eyelid Taganrog reserved position of the largest foreign trade port.

Chekov's monument

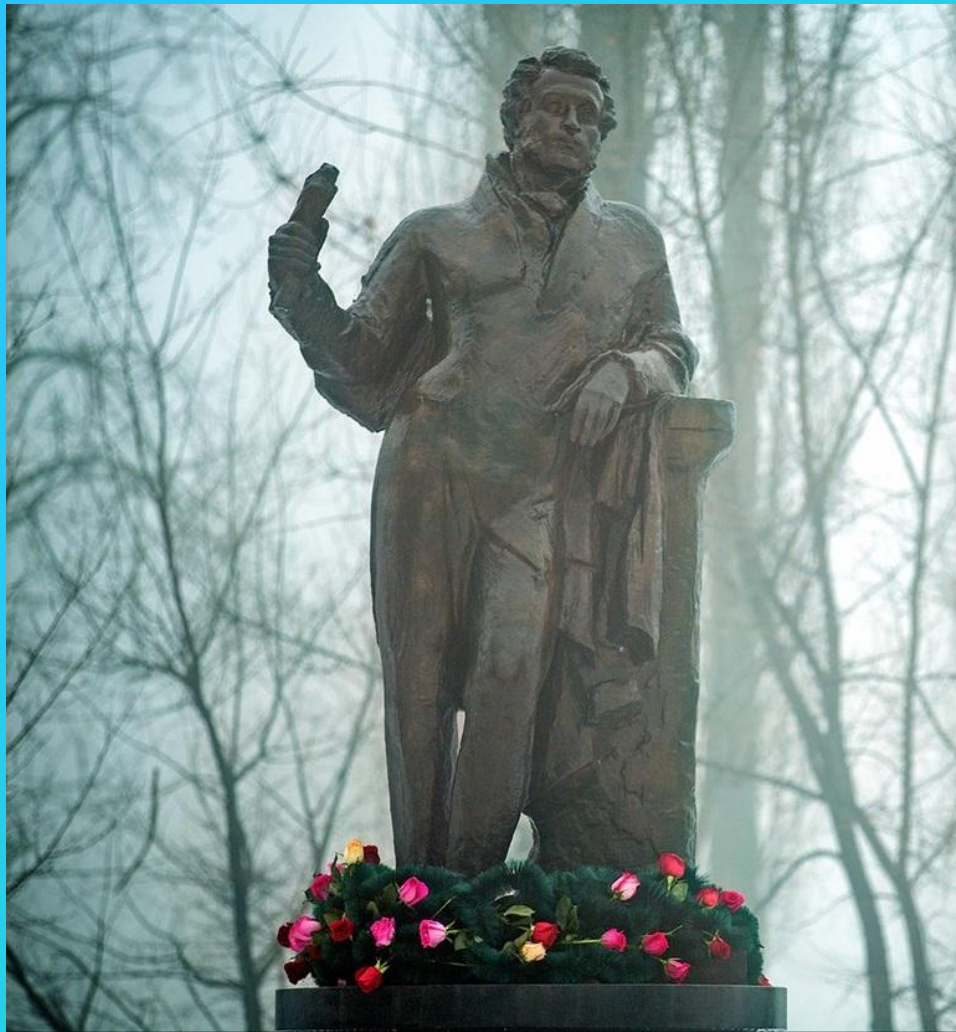

Peter the First's monument

Alexander the First's monument

Plea youth monument

A. Pushkin`s monument

F. Ranevskaya`s monument

Treats at Folds

