- The city has an interesting history. There was an ancient city Ityl in the third century on the right bank of the river. It was a capital of the Khasaren.

- In old chronicle we can read the name

“Astrakhan” or “Adshitarkhan”.

But in 14-th century Timur’s troops destroyed the city, and it was restored in 15-th century again and became the capital of khanats.

In 1556 Ivan the Terrible combined Astrakhan khanate and Russia. In two years the city was built on the left bank of the Volga. So began the history of modern Astrakhan.
