

You're Welcome!

new -York

This is notes about our trip!

The Statue of Liberty

built in New York Harbor in 1886. It was a gift from the people of France to America. About 12 millions immigrants passed through New York when they came to America. It was the first thing they saw after their long trip. It is America's symbol of freedom

Manhattan

of American finance, advertising, art, theatre, publishing, fashion – and everything else.

Manhattan is an island 13 miles long and 2 miles wide.

The famous parts of

The wall street

the Dutch. To protect themselves from possible attacks, they built a strong wooden wall. This wall, which is now destroyed, gave its name to a street in Manhattan, the street, in its turn, became a synonym of American capitalism. Both the

New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange are located in the Wall Street area, as well as many banks and offices of many

Little Italy

at same time that Jews settled the Lower East Side. Like the Jews, many Italians have moved to other places. Little Italy has become smaller. But the Italians restaurants and cafes remain popular with tourist and Italians

Chinatown

situated – Chinatown.
Today Chinatown is the only immigrant community in Manhattan that is still growing.
Chinatown has 7 newspapers of its own.

Greenwich Village

residential area. Its elegant-looking houses in narrow tree-lined street look very picturesque and charming. It had an active nightlife with plenty of bars, restaurants and clubs. The artists, writers

An aerial photograph of Central Park in New York City. The park is a large, green, rectangular area in the center of the image, surrounded by a dense urban landscape of skyscrapers and buildings. The park features a large body of water at the top, a large green field in the middle, and various smaller green spaces and trees. The surrounding city is a mix of old and new architecture, with many tall buildings visible. The text "Central park" is overlaid in yellow on the upper part of the image.

Central park

designed in the 1850s by the landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted.

You can take a ride through Central Park in a little carriage pulled by a horse, or rent a bicycle. There are many attractions in the park: a zoo, a skate0ring, an old fashioned

The metropolitan museum of art that it is called “Museum Mile”. One of the museums is the Metropolitan of Arts, with huge collections of art from all over the world. It is one of the most