Русская народная сказка

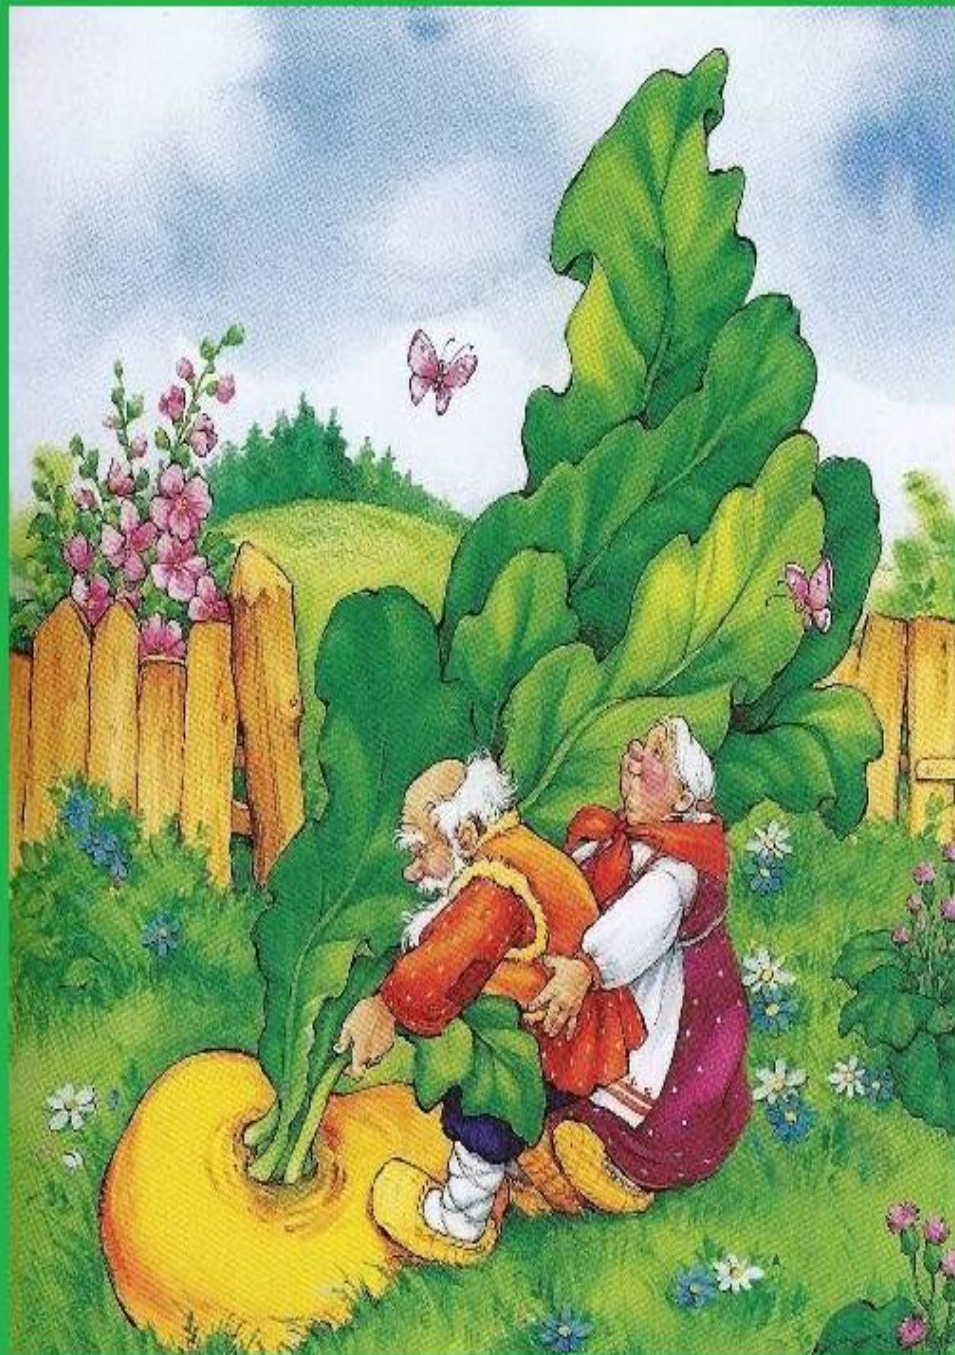

A colorful illustration depicting a scene from the Russian folk tale 'The Turnip'. An elderly man with a white beard and a red fur-trimmed coat is pulling a massive, golden turnip from a hole in the ground. He is being helped by an elderly woman in a red and white dress, a young girl in a yellow dress and red headscarf, and a dog. A grey cat and a small mouse are also present in the scene. The background shows a wooden fence and green foliage.
