

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Trick-or-Treat

- In the Spanish-speaking countries of the Americas, people don't think of the dead as evil spirits. Instead of going treat or treat on Halloween, whole families visit the cemetery on November 1 and 2. They dress in holiday clothing and bring food and flowers to the graves of their loved ones. They spend the day having a pleasant family picnic. Marigolds, the "flowers of the dead", are laid on graves.

WEE FOLK

- “Look out! Look out, boys! Clear the track!
- The witches are here! They’ve all come back.”

FAIRIES! GOBLINS! ELVES! LEPRECHAUNS! BROWNIES! TROLLS!

- Up the airy mountain,
Down the rushy glen,
We daren't go
a-hunting
For fear of little men;
- Wee folk, good folk,
Trooping all together;
Green jacket, red cap,
And white owl's feather!

- A flash of white in the darkness,
- “Who-oo-ooo?”
- Hoots the owl on the post;
- A creak and a groan,
- A squeak and a moan,
- “Ooo-oo-ooo!”
- Comes the howl –
- IT’S A GHOST!”

Ghosts, Ghosts, Ghosts

A Magic Brew

- In the cauldron boil and bake;
- Eye of newt, and toe of frog,
- Wool of bat, and tongue of dog,
- Adder's fork, and blind-worm's sting,
- Lizard's leg, and owlet's wing,
- For a charm of powerful trouble,
- Like a hell-broth boil and bubble,
- Double, double toil and trouble;
- Fire burn, and cauldron bubble."

Witches and Black Cats

- If you want to meet a witch this old superstition tells you what you must do. Put your clothes on wrong side out. Walk backwards to a crossroads on Halloween night. At midnight you'll see a witch.

- Black cats were the partners of witches. Many people were afraid of cats. Some thought cats were the spirits of the dead. Others believed that witches changed themselves into cats. If people met a cat, they asked: "Is this really a cat? Or is this a witch changed into a cat?"

- Orange or gold, and black are the Halloween colors. Orange and gold stand for ripe fruits and grain. This idea comes from Pomona. Black is for black magic and black cats, for the mystery of Halloween. This comes from Samhain.

A JACK O'LANTERN

Put into the right order:

- Put the candle inside the pumpkin.
- Cut a nose and a mouth.
- Cut eyes.
- Take a huge yellow pumpkin.
- Light a candle.
- Put the pumpkin near or in the house.

Mischief Night

- Instead of collecting candy on Halloween night some children collect money for the United Nations Children's Fund, or UNICEF. That way, they can have fun and at the same time help children all around the world.

The logo features a stylized, menacing vampire face carved into a pumpkin. The face has pale skin, dark triangular eyes, and a wide, jagged mouth showing sharp fangs and dripping red blood. The pumpkin is set against a dark, swirling background. Below the pumpkin, the text "Vampire Pumpkin" is written in a white, gothic-style font, with "Vampire" in red. To the right of the text is a red, stylized pumpkin stem with leaves.

Vampire
Pumpkin

- Jack-o'-lanterns got their name from a fellow named Jack who, according to an old Irish legend, was so stingy with his money that he was not allowed into heaven. But poor Jack had played pranks on the devil, so he was not allowed into hell, either! Instead, he is destined to wander around forever, with his lantern, waiting for Judgment Day.

SING A SONG WITH US!

- The pumpkin in the patch,
- Hi-ho on Halloween, the pumpkin in the patch.
- The pumpkin calls a witch...
- The witch calls a bat...
- The bat calls a ghost...
- The ghost scares us all...
- We all scare the ghost...
