

Our world
is in danger!!!

What a beautiful forest!

Look at me!
What a beautiful monkey I am!

Many rare animals live in the rainforests!

Forests are the lungs of our planet!

Help the nature!!!!!!!

**!!

Stop factories from polluting
our planet!

Don't leave the rubbish!!!

Hard equipment is harmful
for our nature!

Stop cutting down the forests!

Don't pollute lakes!

soon we`ll see the trees only
out the pictures!!!

A young spotted cat, possibly a leopard cub, is lying on a wooden ledge. The cat has a brown and black spotted pattern and is looking directly at the camera. The background shows some green foliage and a wooden structure.

If we kill the animals this species will disappear on our planet

A photograph of a dead animal, possibly a marmot or groundhog, lying on its back on a grassy field. A large, light-colored log is placed over its back, from the neck area down to the tail. The animal's head is to the right, and its legs are splayed out. The ground is covered with green grass and some small rocks. In the background, there is a small, weathered wooden structure.
