Bad habits

Everyone wants to have good health, a beautiful body, but not everyone can do it. There is a very important factor that can interfere in this task – these are bad habits. The main bad habits of people are drinking, smoking and drug addiction. In the presence of any of these habits one can say that a person is not an ideal health.

A common habit is alcohol. Alcohol will destroy the human body, disrupt his mental activities, physical and emotional state, will lead to rapid aging of the organism.

Another problem of the society - smoking. But unlike alcohol, smoking causes major damage to the physical activity of man. Smoking contributes to the deterioration of stamina, breathlessness, weakness. In a smoker frequent problems with hair, teeth and skin. All this passion can end the terrible cancer. Smoking and healthy lifestyles simply incompatible.

The most difficult problem of society is drug abuse. The person with addiction to drugs, have just flawed either physically or mentally. Drugs for a very short period of time can change a person beyond recognition for the worse. Most freaky life ends in death.

The cause of the bad habits lie in many causes. Today is an open propaganda of unhealthy lifestyles. Smoking, drinking beer and using drugs are now fashionable and honorable, but very few people aware of the dangers that will emerge after some time. Once people understand this, then do something too late, because to abandon these habits are extremely difficult. You should give yourself a word that is appropriate only when a healthy lifestyle, and nothing should interfere with it. Just so you can keep yourself in good condition both physically and mentally.
