Where do the month names come from?

January: named after Janus, the god of doors and gates. This month opens the year.

February: from februo. This was a Roman month of sacrifices and purification.

March: named after Mars, the god of war. Start of year for soldiers (no fighting during winter).

April: from aperire, Latin for “to open” (buds). This is the month when trees open their leaves.

May: named after Maia, the goddess of growth of plants. This is the month when plants really start to grow.

June: from junius, Latin for the goddess, the queen of the Gods Juno.

July: named after Julius Caesar, the ruler of Rome in 44 B.C. He reorganised the calendar.

August: named after Augustus Caesar, another ruler of Rome in 8 B.C.

September: from septem, Latin for “seven”. The seventh month (counting from March).

October: from octo, Latin for “eight”.

November: from novem, Latin for “nine”.

December: from decem, Latin for “ten”.
