

Choosing a profession.

I. What do you want to be?

II. What professional fields can you choose?

III. What is important in choosing a profession?

professions

doctor pilot driver
bank clerk
designer hairstresser
travel agent journalist dentist

computer operator
computer programmer
nurse teacher vet businessman fireman
policeman (militiaman)
militaryman

A militaryman is a person who defends the Motherland. He services in the army.

A militaryman participates in war actions.

He is strong and brave, resolute and willed.

A militaryman is a patriot of the country

A fireman is a person who puts out fires.

He rescues from danger.

He is courageous and resolute.

A fireman is a fearless and disinterested person.

A policeman is a person who defends a law, social and state order.

He is justice and honest. A policeman must be a sociable, polite and desent person. A policeman is a person who has patience and self- control.

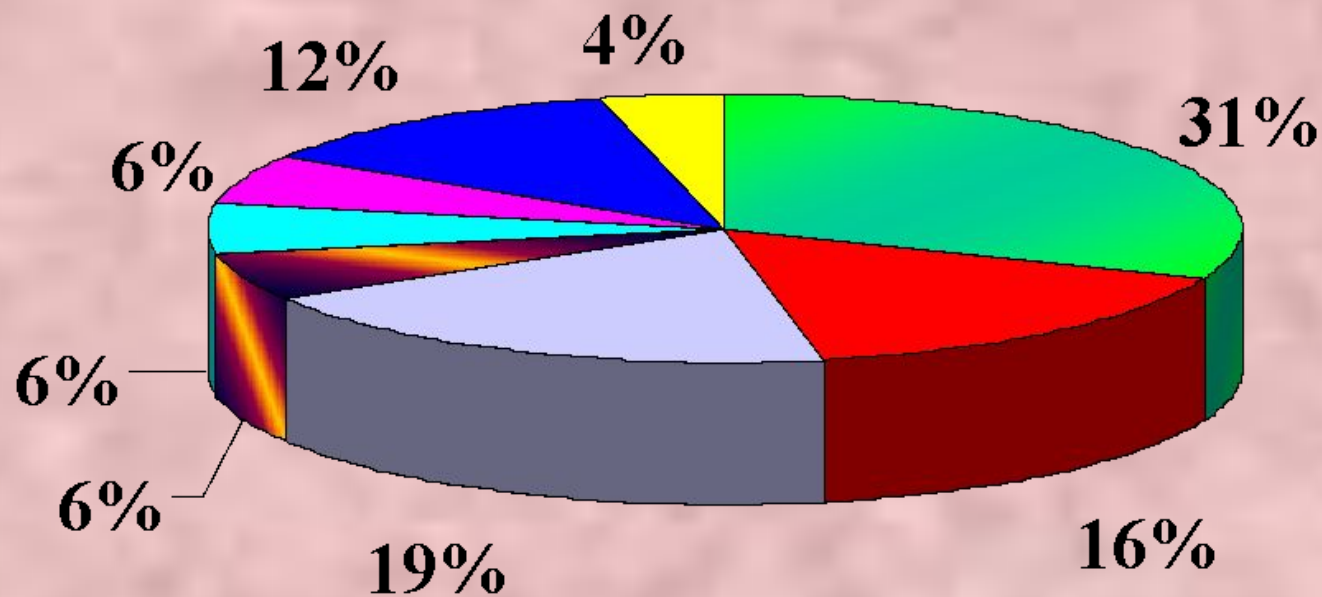

A doctor is a person who works with people and helps them.

A doctor must be patient and kind.

This job is interesting and socially important.

 workers	 militarymen	 lawyers
 policemen	 nurses	 journalists
 bank clerks	 cooker

Factors are helping to make the right choice.

- hard-working
- communicative
- problem-solving skills
- logical reasoning
- profound knowledge
- analytical abilities

- careful
- ambitious
- efficient
- kind
- patient
- physical abilities

					5A
					R		6P
					T		O
		2M		4T	I		L	7D
1P	R	O	3F	E	S	S	I	O	N
A		N	I	A	T		C	C
R		E	R	C			E	T
E		Y	E	H			M	O
N			M	E			A	R
T			A	R			N
S			N						