A Tour Guide Around London

Hello! Nice to meet you! Welcome to the capital of Great Britain. You have a great opportunity to visit one of the most ancient and beautiful cities in the world.

Top London's Attractions

LONDON

The Tower of London

An aerial photograph of the Tower of London, showing its extensive stone walls, multiple towers, and central buildings. The fortress is situated on the north bank of the River Thames, with modern city buildings visible in the background and a large green lawn in the foreground.

The Tower has been part of the capital's history for the past 900 years. The fortress first built by William the Conqueror as a citadel, royal palace, seat of the government. The Tower now protects the Crown Jewels.

St Paul's Cathedral

St Paul's Cathedral is the spiritual centre of the City. It was first built in 1666. The present building is the fifth cathedral to be built on the site. The architect of the baroque-style building was Sir Christopher Wren. St Paul's Cathedral is a fitting final place for many of the nation's heroes.

Trafalgar Square

Trafalgar Square is the popular place for political rallies and meetings. The Admiral Lord Nelson's statue surveys the memorial to his great naval victory in 1805. The Admiral's statue looks towards the House of Parliament. To the other side of the column are fountains.

Houses of Parliament

Houses of Parliament stands on the River Thames at Westminster. It began in 1840 after a Great Fire of London. It is officially known as the Palace of Westminster. The complex includes the House of Commons, the House of Lords, Westminster Hall, and the 320-foot high Clock Tower. It contains the world-famous sight Big Ben.

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey has been closely connected with the Crown over 900 years. The Abbey was rebuilt in the 11th century by a king Edward the Confessor. The Abbey contains monuments to monarchs. It is the meeting place for Parliament from the 14th to the 16th centuries.

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the best known royal palace in the world. It was built in 1703. When Her Majesty the Queen is in the residence, the Royal Standard flutters over the east front. The palace is open to public in August and September.

Piccadilly

Piccadilly is the centre of entertainment. It is the meeting point of six streets. Here you can find the most expensive shops, restaurants and entertainment places. This centre was created in 1980s.
