

• TEENAGER'S FASHION IN EUROPE.

They are so beautiful here!

Women in England like to dress elegantly.

Not many women dress so brightly than others. They consider that it does not suit a woman. Frankly speaking, fashion for women much differs from fashion for teens.

England is famous of its trendy young people. It is not a secret that fashion in Britain is different than in other countries and teenagers are a good example

- Boys in England prefer to wear more classic clothes, or casual clothes but usually you can see young people in trendy 'fragmentary' clothes
- Girls in England prefer casual clothes, which they mix with freaky clothes or classic clothes

Italy is a mother of world fashion. There are a lot of trendy designers in Italy. Every day they design new ideas of clothes.

- Boys in Italy prefer to mix classic and modern styles like: a jacket with jeans, or shorts with moccasins
- Girls prefer more conservative clothes like a dress, but they wear jeans too

Russia

- Teenagers in Russia prefer basically sportswear but some teens wear clothes in American style such as tight jeans and large sweaters.

in conclusion...

□ Fashion everywhere is different and in each country there is something special.

□ Thanks for attention!
