- A photograph of a stone castle ruin, likely the Tower of London, situated on a grassy hill. The sky is blue with white clouds. The castle has several windows and a central tower. The foreground is a green field with a small pile of rocks.

The British Parliament sits in the Building which is called the Palace of Westminster. It's also called the Houses of Parliament because there are two Houses: the House of Lords and the House of Commons.

Big Ben

On the Houses of Parliament one can see the famous Tower Clock Big Ben. The symbol of London . Big Ben is the real bell which strikes every quarter of an hour.

Westminster Abbey

- It's one of the most famous sights in London, where kings, queens and many famous people are buried.

Buckingham Palace

It's the Queen's official London residence.

Tourists always go to see the ceremony of changing the Guard there.

Tower

Bridge-is one of the main symbol of London and all Great Britain.

This bridge is located, in the historical center of city not far away from London Tower located on the north of river Thames, and was named on the honor of it.

Tower of London

It is one of the oldest building of the city.

Many centuries ago it was a fortress, a royal palace and then a prison.

Now it is a museum of arms

St. Paul's Cathedral

It is a biggest English Church.

*St. Paul Cathedral - the Anglican Cathedral named
after an apostle
Paul and is built in the highest point of London*

British Museum is the largest and richest museum in the world. It was founded in 1753. In this museum in Egyptian Galleries contain human and mummies.

Madam Tussaud's Museum is an exhibition of hundreds of life-size wax models of famous people of yesterday and today. The collection was started by Madam Tussaud, a French modeler in wax, in the 18th century.

Trafalgar Square is a central square of the city

Hyde Park is the most democratic park in the world, because many democratic meetings take place there.

Stonehenge

Is a prehistoric monument, presumably build by Druids members of an order of priests in ancient Britain.

The last real lock is a lock of Bodiam

This lock stands near the river Roter in Sassex

Liverpool, the “city of ships”

It is second
greatest port,
after London.

The most interesting sight
in the Liverpool
is the docks.

Liverpool established in 1903 is famous for it's School of Tropical Medicine.
