“St. Valentine’s Day” is a festival of friendship, love, romance, affection for all those people who celebrate it. No one really knows the origin of Valentine’s Day. Different legends tell different stories.

Now there is one of them.

A legend.

More than two thousand years ago there lived a man named Valentine in Rome.

He was a kind-hearted doctor who tried to help everybody.

In those days Christianity was a new religion.

Valentine became a Christian priest and prayed for the health of his patients. One day he was asked to cure a blind girl. But one day he was arrested because he secretly married the young couples. When the little girl's father learned about Valentine's arrest he was upset . Valentine understood that he would be put to death and he asked the girl's father for a pen and a paper.

далее

He wrote a farewell note and handed it to him to give it to his blind daughter.

Valentine was executed on 14 th February

When the girl's father went home he was greeted by his daughter. The girl opened the note and discovered a yellow crocus inside. The message said " From your Valentine". As the girl looked down upon the crocus she saw brilliant colours for the first time in her life. The girl's eyesight was restored. A miracle. After his death Valentine was named a saint.

Symbols of Valentine's day.

В начало

Cupid with his bow and arrows (a symbol of love)

A ribbon on Valentine's card (it means that you are tied up- you are my boy or a girl)

A lace of Valentine's card (you have caught my heart in a net)

A red mitten (it means that his (her) boy (girl) doesn't like him (her)

A coin (if someone gives you a coin he/she is wishing you to be wealthy

Rice and ting-tinkle (звон колоколов) – wedding.

As for me, I've got a red, red tulip.

Who sent it,
I wonder?

Look, boys,
this beautiful rose was near my bed when I got up. What a nice surprise!

And I got a card
It has no
signature, either.

How strange I got a letter this morning but I don't know who sent it to me.

Dear Fluffy!

Remember somebody loves you with all her heart
