- Hello,
- My name is Kseniya. I am a student of the 8th grade and a pen-pal of Krista Phelps. My teacher Olga asked me to answer your questions. Let's start.
- What kind of books do you read over in Russia?
- Oh, that's difficult. To my mind, Russia is a reading country. We read books of all genres. And we don't care, if the books we read are written by foreigners. We also love our native literature like Pushkin, Hohol, Tolstoy and others.
- As for me, I am keen on fantasy. My favorite American author is Stephanie Meyer. I am a really Twilight fan. Stephanie is a very good writer, she made me reading a love story, I had never done before. But the best of the best is "The Fiery Faculty" by Alex Kosh. It's a Russian book, so you can't read it? But I sure, you can, you will fall in love with it)))
- What movies do people watch in Russia?
- What a nice question! We watch your films!!! American cinema industry is stronger and better than ours, but now the Russians begin to shoot very good exiting movies. You can listen about "The Mermaid", as far as I know, it is famous abroad.
- I like "Stardust", "Step Up", "Spiderman", "Pirates of the Caribbean", "The illusionist" and many more. My favorite Russian movie is "We are from the future". It is very funny, but makes you think.
- I hope my information will help you.

- Question: what kinds of books read in Russia?
- Answer: It is very difficult to answer this question. Different people like different genres. Somebody loves detective stories, somebody loves romances. For example, I very like books which tell about world after nuclear catastrophe. My best friend loves fantasy, but many people don't read books. They think, it is a waste of time. They surf world wide web. It is their source of information.
