

The Greatest Writers of the World

The 9 th form

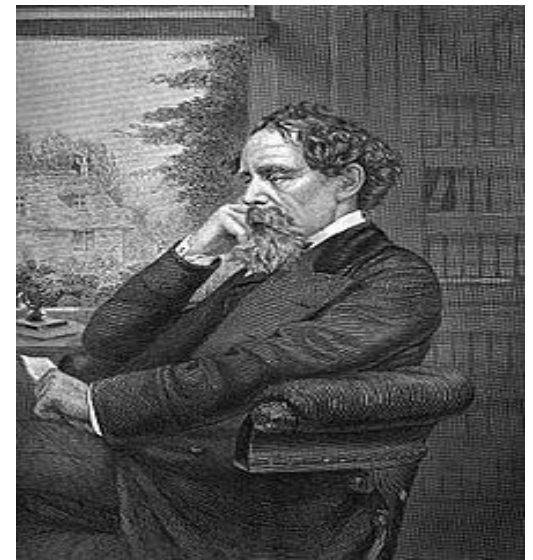

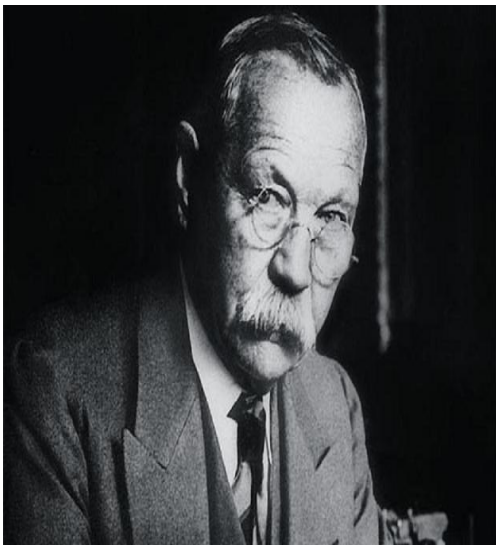

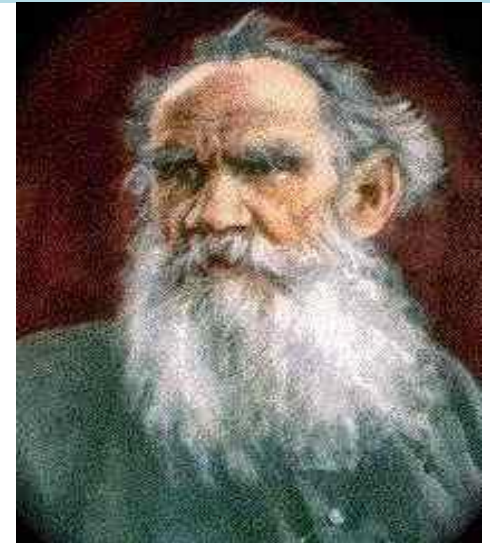

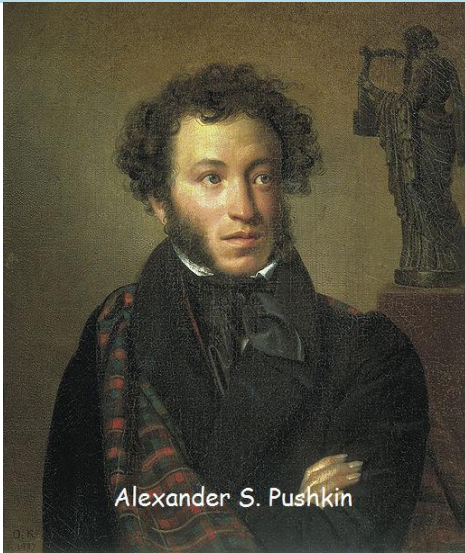

The 28th of January
Monday

Alexander S. Pushkin

Theme: "The Greatest Writers of the World"

Aim: to consolidate the material of the Theme.

Plan:

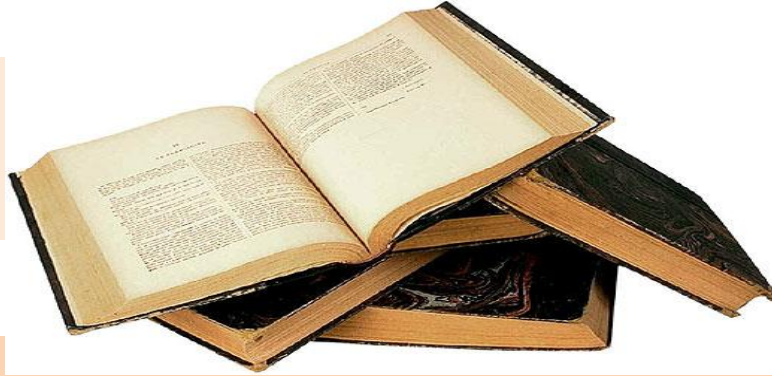

- conversation according to the theme;
- playing a game;
- monologue and dialogue speech

Let's train sounds [s] [z]

useful fascinating wisdom exciting to solve serious problems famous prose study better it's necessary suppose

Is reading books necessary for people? Why?

a Speech Formula

reading books is(are) books help(s)
give(s)

- to study better;
- fascinating;
- to solve serious problems ;
- useful and exciting;
- information about famous people, lands;
- to widen our mental outlook.

This.....was written by.....
.....wrote this.....
(novel \ play \ fable \ poem)

Ask questions about your favourite writers. Put the words in the correct order

writer who is favourite your ?

you prefer prose reading do or poetry?

writers English you what do to read like?

favourite author novels did write your?

“Who? What?”

-

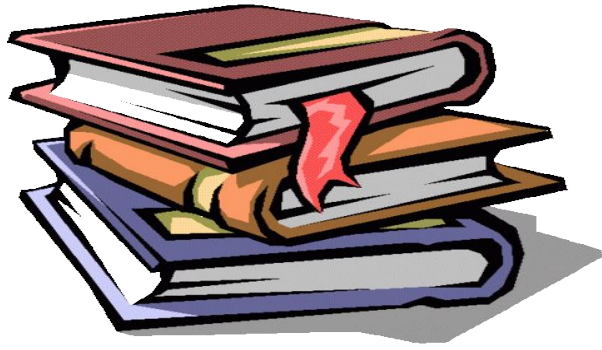

-

The rules

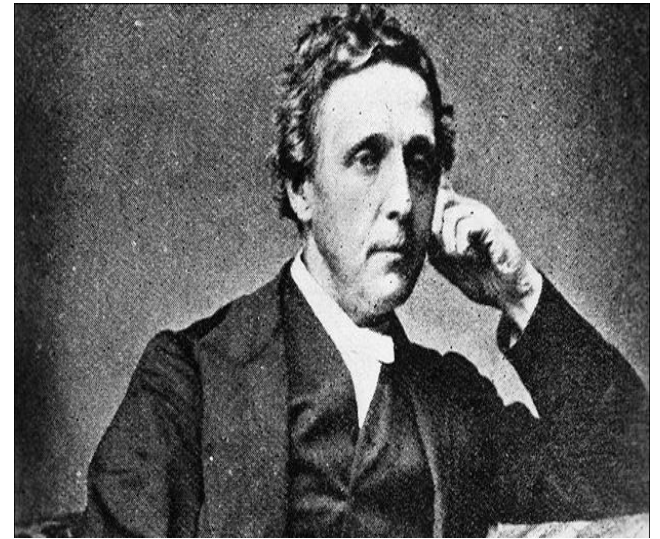

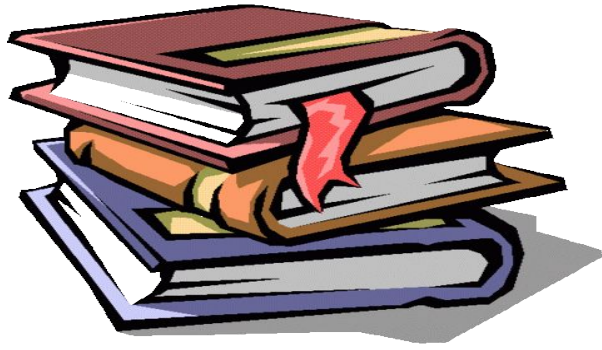

Team 1

What is the name of this book and who was the author of it ?

What was Lewis Carroll's real name and what was his first profession ?

Who can restore this information ?

The real writer ... Charles Dodgson.

And was an.....man, because three

His first a Mathematics at ....University. His found him.....and dry. Besides Levis Carroll was a .....photographer. But for.....this writer is as an of "Alice's
..... in"

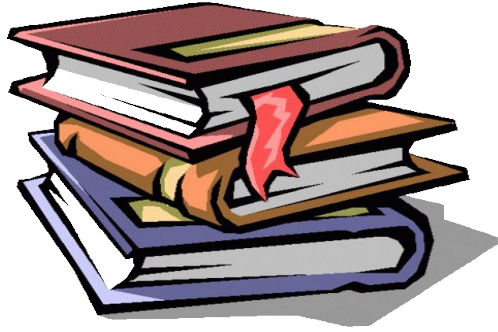

What is the name of one of the most popular writers in the world?

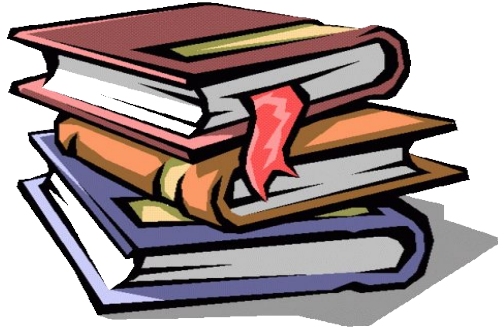

(According to popularity this author takes the 3rd place after “The Bible” and William Shakespeare’s books)

Team 2

What do you know about Agatha Christie?

What Russian writers served in the Army?

In this photo you can see a well-known Russian poet with his wife (She was a famous poet too)

What are their names?

What modern Russian writers of crime stories do you know?

Black Box

?

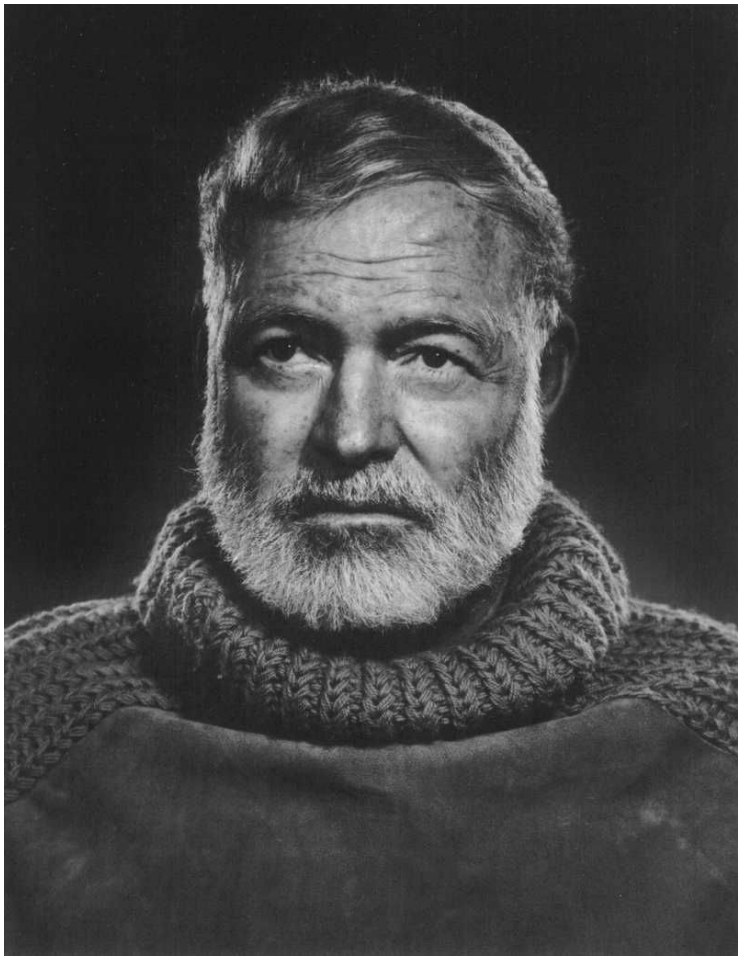

Gymnastics for eyes

- What suvorovites of the platoon read books very often?
- What literary genres do our suvorovites prefer to read?
- Who enjoys reading military stories or books about military leaders?
- What foreign authors are popular in reality?

Phrase of differences and similarities

- there are a lot of differences between.....
- is quite different from....
- is just the same as.....
- is quite like....

A detailed illustration of a quill pen and an inkwell. The quill is positioned diagonally, pointing towards the top right, with its fine barbs clearly visible. Below it, a small, dark inkwell sits on a surface. The background of the illustration is a soft, light brown gradient.

Home Assignment

Speak about your favourite writer(poet)

