

YURI GAGARIN

The Soviet pilot-cosmonaut, Hero of the Soviet Union, cavalier highest distinction a number of states, an honorary citizen of many Russian and foreign cities.

Country: USSR

Major: Pilot-cosmonaut

Military rank:

Expeditions: "East" (12 April 1961) 1st man in space

Time in space: 1 hour and 48 minutes

Date and place of birth: March 9, 1934, the village Klushino, USSR

Date of death: March 27, 1968 (34 years)

AWARDS:

- The Soviet:

- Foreign countries:

SPACE FLIGHT

- Start the "Vostok" was produced April 12, 1961 at 09:07 Moscow time from the Baikonur Cosmodrome, with the pilot-cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin on board Gagarin's call sign was "Cedar".

- After "at the start," said Gagarin became famous phrase: "Let's go!". Rocket "Vostok" worked without problems

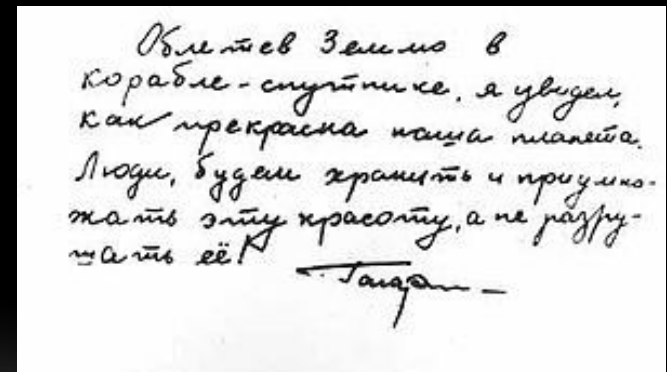

- In orbit, Gagarin spent just an experiment: drinking, eating, taking notes with a pencil. "Putting" pencil beside him, he accidentally discovered that he immediately began to float away.

GAGARIN MEETING

- At an altitude of 7 km in accordance with the flight plan Gagarin ejected, after which the capsule and astronaut began to descend by parachute separately.

THE LIGHTING IN THE SOVIET MEDIA

MEMORY

- In place-names: Gagarin and Gagarin district (Smolensk region)
- Gagarin called boulevards, streets, avenues, squares,
- Smelovka memorial in the village near the landing site of the first cosmonaut of the Earth

MONUMENTS TO GAGARIN

HOW ARE YOU IN 2013? LANDED ON MARS?

