Studying abroad:

What? Where? How?

AIM:

To research the opportunities of studying abroad & to find out if there are any obstacles for it?

Tasks:

To define the countries which attract students most

To introduce the programs of Students Exchange

To show the ways of entering high schools

Methods of research:

Analyses

Interview

Illustrative

Comparisons

Survey

To be enrolled in any language school abroad

You should choose:

✓Country

✓City

✓School

✓Residing

Country

- Personal preference
- The fact that the host country can influence your accent is insignificant

City

- ✓ For a long time studying, it is necessary to choose absolutely unusual place.
- ✓ Whether you like to be engaged in the same place, where the majority of foreign students do or in a place where you can feel colour of the country
- ✓ Whether this place is removed far from possible sights
- ✓ Whether you can find here something that is interesting (night life, historical monuments, good shops, cinemas etc.) for you
- ✓ Whether you can find here the good compromise – a bit of everything

School

- Size
- Variety of programs & services
- Approaches to teaching techniques
- Excursion-entertaining programme

Residing

- In campus
- At family
- In apartment

Unsuccessful accommodation can not only spoil free time , but also affect the progress in the most negative way
