

I or Me?

Using I or Me

When you write about yourself, you use the pronouns I or me.

I like to go to church.

He gave the book to
me.

If the pronoun appears in the subject of a sentence, use I.

• I was late for school.

Subject

Predicat
e

If the pronoun appears in the predicate part of the sentence, use me.

- Sherry went home with me.

Subject

Predicat
e

Using I and Me With Another Name

Sometimes we combine the pronouns I and me with another person.

- Betsy and I like to read.
- The TV was too loud for Rob and me.

When using I and me
with another person,
always put other
person's name first.

Bobby and I broke the blue lamp.

Sit beside Terry and me.

So when do you use I or me with the other person's name?

The And Trick!

- Cover the word “and” plus the other person’s name. Read the sentence and listen for the correct pronoun.

The And Trick!

- I walked home.

The And Trick!

- Give the paper to  me.

You try it!

- Find the sentence that correctly uses I and me.

Which sentence is correct?

- I worked for hours.
- me worked for hours.

Which sentence is correct?

- I rode the bus.
- me rode the bus.

Which sentence is correct?

- Help  me paint this.
- Help  I paint this.

Which sentence is correct?

- She sits behind  I.
- She sits behind  me.

Which sentence is correct?

- Everyone looked at  I.
- Everyone looked at  me.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- Mother and I love ice cream.
- Mother and me love ice cream.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- I love ice cream.
- me love ice cream.

Which sentence
correctly uses I or me?

Mother and I love ice cream.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- No one wanted help from  I.
- No one wanted help from Ted and  me.

Which sentence
correctly uses I or
me?

No one wanted help from Ted and
me.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- After  I finished, we put our books away.
- After  me finished, we put our books away.

Which sentence
correctly uses I or
me?

After Kathy and I finished, we put our books away.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- Move the chair beside  I.
- Move the chair beside  me.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

Move the chair for John and
me.

Which sentence correctly uses I or me?

- Mom opened the door for
I.
- Mom opened the door for
me.

Which sentence
correctly uses I or
me?

Mom opened the door for Nana and
me.

Remember the And Test:

- When using I or me and another person's name, cover the word “and” the other person's name to find which pronoun would be used.

