GIN LANE.

*See what a Crowd with Pains surround
With whom the Plague is bred,
And how they all are brought
To this sad State of Life.*

*Wine and Drunk, who in the Streets
Of London, and in the
And who are all brought
To this sad State of Life.*

*Farthest Step that on the World is made,
That is, the Poor and the
Wine, and Drunk, who in the Streets
And who are all brought
To this sad State of Life.*

BEER STREET.

*See, happy People of our Isle
You enjoy Liberty and Ease,
And you are all brought
To this sad State of Life.*

*Labour and Art, which by their Industry produce
We reap the happy State of Ease
And you are all brought
To this sad State of Life.*

*Sense of Health, the grateful Taste
Which the City of London
And you are all brought
To this sad State of Life.*
