In our country, men are free and have an opinion

Political System

The King rule's the country, because if there were no King it would be chaos

The people don't know what crimes and meanness is

Citizens have a good sense of humor

Citizens think of themselves as members of the community rather than as individuals.

The soil is fruitful, valleys are verdant and the water in rivers is clear

There are beautiful animals world

Our country is freedom for everyone who live there...

The End
