

Project “New Zealand’s Specials: A Future Sociologist’s View”

Interesting facts about New Zealand

- 1) New Zealand became the first country in the world, which introduced universal suffrage. This happened in 1893. Since then, men and women were free to vote at all levels of the electoral process
- 2) New Zealand - the first country in the world where three senior government positions are held by women
- 3) In a country no one nuclear power plant, as the government announced a nuclear-free status
- 4) is the smallest species of dolphins "Hector's dolphin" found only off the coast of New Zealand.
- 5) New Zealand is the most peaceful and secure country in the world

The invention of New Zealand

In New Zealand, we invented a table that you can always carry with them. New Zealand Refold startup has created a unique desk that lacks all of the above disadvantages. Firstly, it is made of sturdy cardboard, therefore it weighs 6.5 kg. Secondly, it can be easily folded to the size of a small suitcase and a

Researchers from New Zealand invented the so-called bionic legs for people bedridden palsy.

New Zealand's Martin Aircraft Company has invented a personal aircraft. Now, anyone can get up and fly. Jetpack only need to put on the shoulders..The machine can reach speeds up to a hundred kilometers per hour. A pilot's license to fly it is not necessary, because the controls are simple. The company believes that the pack will solve the problem of traffic jams in big cities.

Places, which we can visit in four-day trip about NZ:

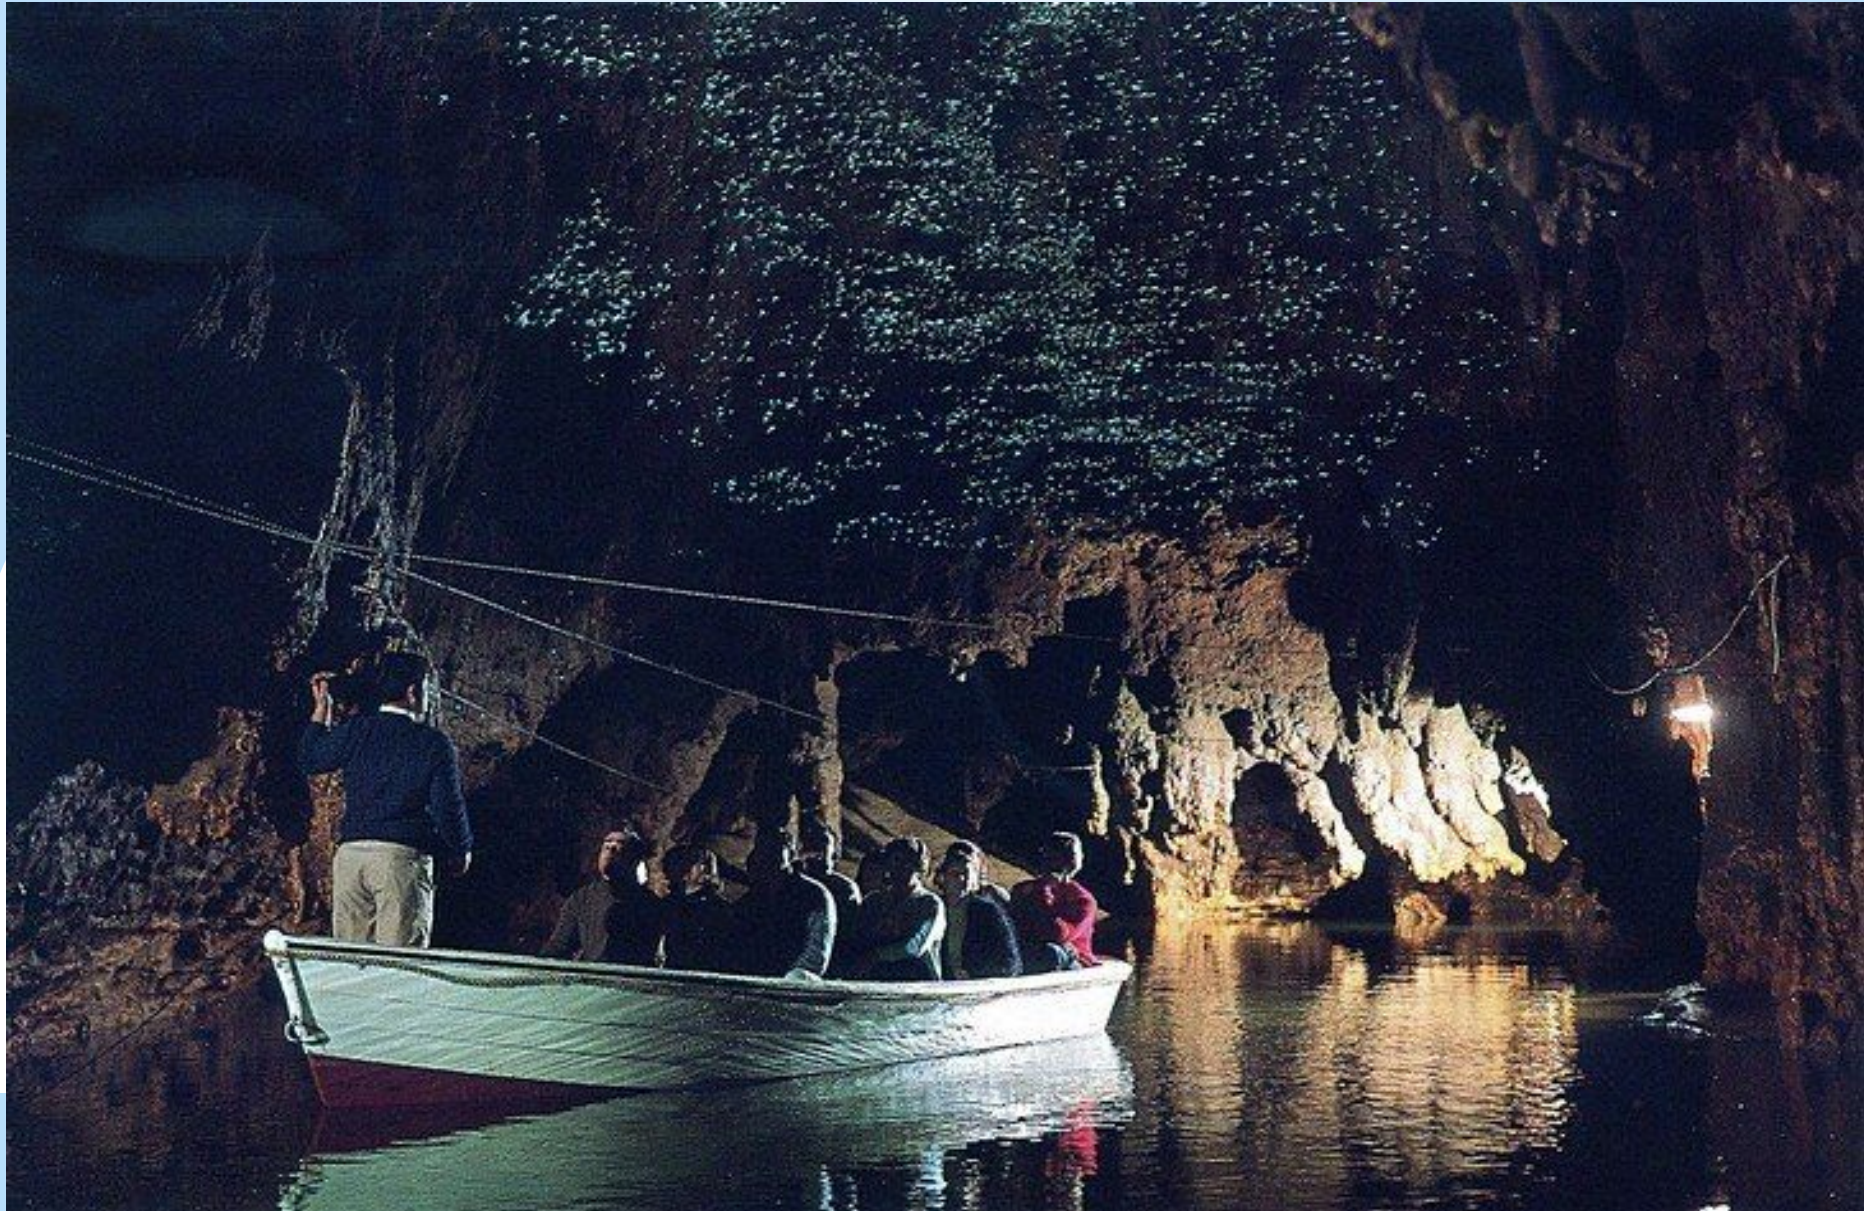

Franz Josef Glacier

Sky Tower

Waitomo Caves

Bay of Islands

Huka Falls

