

Alfred Nobel

Performed by Chizhov A.A.

Contents

- Introduction
- Alfred Nobel is a man of contrasts
- The Nobel prize
- Personal Qualities
- The Nobel prize winner

Introduction

- •Success doesn't come to you...you go to it
- •I never think of the future - it comes soon enough.
- Alfred Nobel

Alfred Nobel- a man of contrasts'

- To invent by name, to improve mining and road building.
- To be the son of bankrupt.
- To be industrialist.
- To make a fortune.
- Not to study at school of university
- To be used as a weapon of war.
- To become a millionaire
- To be an idealist
- To live a simple life
- By the age of 20 to be skilful chemist and excellent linguist to have mastered Swedish, Russian, German, French, and English.

The Nobel Prize

- Five fields:
- Chemistry(to devote his life to chemistry, inventing and developing explosives)
- Physics(the science of future)
- Medicine(to be often ill)
- Literature(for most outstanding works in the field of literature)
- Prize for promotion of world peace (to see an end to wars and thus peace between nations)

Personal Qualities

- Imaginative and inventive
- To have luck in business and to show financial sense.
- To be quick to see industrial openings.
- To have ability to combine the qualities of an original scientist with those of a forward-loading industrialist.
- To take any chance to help the poor.

The Nobel prize winner-Rutherford

- The magnetization of iron by high-frequency discharges and magnetic viscosity.
- Radioactivity is produced by the disintegration of atoms.
- The Nobel Prize in chemistry in 1908.