Adoption of Christianity

ARMENIA

- The dominant religion in Armenia is Christianity, Christianity was first introduced by the apostles Bartholomew and Thaddeus in the first century AD. In 301 AD Armenia became the first country to establish Christianity as its state religion when St. Gregory the Illuminator convinced Tiridates III, the king of Armenia, to convert to Christianity.

Some Information

- 94.7% of the population following the Armenian Apostolic Church

- 4% other Christian Armenians (Catholic and Protestant),

- 1.3% Yezidi (monotheist with elements of nature worship)
