

Composite Sentence 1

Compound

The clauses of which they consist have equal rights.

Complex

The clauses aren't equal, one of this is the main clause, the other is a subordinate clause. There may be more than one clause and more than one subordinate clause in a complex sentence.

Compound sentence

Coordinating sentence	Coordinating conjunctions	Examples
Ыңғайластық	and, as well as not, but also	Father came at seven and we had a supper
Талғаулықты	or, either-...or	They must hurry or they will be late for the lesson
Қарсылықты	but, while, were as	We went home after the evening party but my friend stayed there
Себеп салдар	for, so	It was very late so my brother met me

Complex

Subject clauses

Predicate clauses

Object
clauses

Adverbial
clauses

Attribute
clauses

Subject clauses which perform the function of predicative and may be introduced by conjunctions that, if, whether and such conjunctive words as who, what, which, when, why, how and others.

That you may meet him at the party is quite possible.
What I need now is someone to do the job.

Predicative clauses which perform the function of predicative and may be introduced by the same conjunctions and conjunctive words as subject clauses

His only desire was that his family shouldn't interfere with his plans.

Object clauses which modify verbs and adjectives as objects to them and may be introduced by the same conjunctions and conjunctive words as subject clauses

