

«Court

of

Justice»

The courts consist of judges, whose independence is protected by the Constitution and the law. Judge may be terminated or suspended solely on the grounds established by law.

Levels of the judiciary

Judicial power in the Republic of Kazakhstan belongs only to the courts in the face of permanent judges and carried out on behalf of the Republic of Kazakhstan and has their purpose: protecting the rights, freedoms and legitimate interests of citizens and organizations, enforcement of the constitution and laws of other normative legal acts, international treaties of the Republic

- Supreme Court
- District (city) courts
- Regional courts

Status of Judges

- Judges of all courts of the Republic of Kazakhstan have the same status and differ only powers.
- The judge can not be assigned to non-judicial functions and duties not provided for by law.

