

The Burj Club

Are you a professional looking for a new challenge?
Be part of the new luxury experience in the heart of Downtown Dubai.

A new lifestyle experience is set to debut in Downtown Dubai in April 2013 with the launch of The Burj Club, an upscale fitness and relaxation destination for high-end health-conscious members.

Located next to the world's tallest tower – Burj Khalifa –
with sweeping views of the Dubai Fountain, The Burj Club covers four floors and will offer an unparalleled collection of hi-tech facilities and services supported by an elite team of trainers, therapists and attendants.

If you believe you can provide high quality service and have the relevant qualifications and a keen interest in health and fitness, or a qualified experience, we would like to know more about you.

The Burj Club

We offer a competitive tax-free salary, service charge share, shared accommodation with fitness and dining facilities, medical coverage, meals on and off duty, bi-annual air ticket and the opportunity to embark on a career with one of the world's leading hospitality companies.

If you are looking for an international experience, are willing to commit to a minimum two-year contract, and ready to be part of a world-leading state-of-the-art fitness concept in the Middle East's most dynamic urban destination, then get in touch with us today.
