

· After 3 years, 1837h., When Queen Victoria came to the throne, the palace was virtually impossible to live. Most of the windows did not open in 1000. In 1853 was built ballroom. King Edward VII was born in this palace 1841b, and then died in 1910. Despite the fact that which houses many family treasures that are not all lived in it were happy

Stonehenge

 Huge construction of Stonehenge - a stone puzzle in the heart of Europe as a monument called the vrazhuyuchyy one researcher Dr. Trever Umlmor. Now archaeologists have agreed in opinion that this arhitekrurnyy monument appeared in three stages between 3500 and 1100

• Pigeons that live in the area Trafalgar Square here from the English alphabet coasts cliffs. Now their rocks-cross church of St. Martin, the dome of the National Gallery and tryuholka Admiral Nelson, who is a 44-meter column

