

Sport in our life

Sport is probably as old as the humanity itself. It has been developing with the developing and growth of the mankind. Sport holds an important place in our life. Sport helps people to stay in good shape, keeps them fit, healthy and makes them more organized and better disciplined in their daily activities.

Sports

‘indoor’
sports

‘outdoor’
sports

Indoor itself can be define as a "situated in, or appropriate to the inside of a house or other building" so Indoor sport is a activities or things that happen or are used inside a building and not outside.

Football

(American and British also soccer)

A game for two teams of eleven players who try to kick a round ball into the other team's goal on a field. It's most popular game in the world

Cricket

Cricket is a bat-and-ball game played between two teams of 11 players on a field, at the centre of which is a rectangular 22-yard long pitch. One team bats, trying to score as many runs as possible while the other team bowls and fields, trying to dismiss the batsmen and thus limit the runs scored by the batting team.

There are different kinds of fighting:

- Judo
- Karate
- Tae Kwon Do
- Boxing

Player Name

0

0

Didier leClerc

Table tennis

Table tennis, also known as ping-pong, is a sport in which two or four players hit a lightweight ball back and forth using table tennis rackets. The game takes place on a hard table divided by a net.

A photograph of a swimmer in a pool, captured mid-stroke. The swimmer is in the foreground, moving from left to right, with their right arm extended forward and their left arm bent. The water is a vibrant blue, and there are several lanes of pool markers (black and white floats) visible in the background. The word "Swimming" is overlaid in a large, blue, outlined font in the upper center of the image.

Swimming

Swimming is a water based sport governed by the Fédération Internationale de Natation (FINA).

Basketball

Basketball is a very popular sport worldwide, played with a round, orange ball that bounces. The ball is also called a basketball. The sport was invented in Springfield, Massachusetts, by a professor named Dr. James Naismith in the year 1891.

Ice Skating

Ice skating is moving on ice by using ice skates. It can be done for a variety of reasons, including health benefits, leisure, traveling, and various sports. Ice skating occurs both on specially prepared indoor and outdoor tracks, as well as on naturally occurring bodies of frozen water, such as lakes and rivers.

Skiing

Skiing is a recreational activity and competitive sport in which the participant attaches long runners or skis is a recreational activity and competitive sport in which the participant attaches long runners or skis to boots or shoes on the feet and uses them to travel on top of snow. Aside from recreation and competition, skiing has been used for military purposes and even travelling in areas that experience heavy snowfall.

Golf

Golf is a precision club and ball sport in which competing players (or golfers) use many types of clubs to hit balls into a series of holes on a golf course using the fewest number of strokes. Golf is defined, in the rules of golf, as "playing a ball with a club from the teeing ground into the hole by a stroke or successive strokes in accordance with the Rules."

Cycling

Cycling, also called bicycling or biking, is the use of bicycles for transport, recreation, or for sport. Persons engaged in cycling are cyclists or bicyclists. Apart from ordinary two-wheeled bicycles, cycling also includes riding unicycles, tricycles, quadracycles, and other similar human-powered vehicles

Horse riding

The Riding Horse is a type of show horse in the UK. Riding horses can be any breed, but are generally warmbloods or Thoroughbred crosses.

The breeding and showing of riding horses is overseen by the British Show Horse Association.

Rock Climbing

Rock climbing is an activity in which participants climb up, down or across natural rock formations or artificial rock walls. The goal is to reach the summit of a formation or the endpoint of a pre-defined route without falling

Thank you for your attention!!!!