

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

- F. Nietzsche: immoralism
- “Anti-Christ”; “Thus Spoke Zarathustra”; “A Fun Science”;
- existentialism;
- Criticism of Christianity (love to a human being);
- Criticism of socialism;
- A human is a creator and a creature;
- Sufferings are for those who want to suffer;

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

- F. Nietzsche: immoralism
  - To love a distant one;
  - Modern man is only a way to a Super-Human (overman);
  - Christian love brings up weak people;
  - Modern “active” man is the laziest: he does not asks the question Why he lives?

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

- F. Nietzsche: immoralism
- BE and ASK YOURSELF;
- People communicate to escape from inside silence;
- A habit to live as a crowd, - that is a-moralist;
- A free man – he knows what he lives for;
- An envying small group of people – is a source of evil (prediction of coming wars and catastrophes);

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

- F. Nietzsche: immoralism
  - A super-human being loves his enemies;
  - He lives on his risks;
  - He is lonely;
  - Common standards is not acceptable;
  - Public morality kills;
  - Everyone has to find his own “categorical imperative”

Ethical Concepts of the 19-20th centuries

- F. Nietzsche: immoralism
  - Do not be connected;
  - Do not be merciful;
  - Do not connect to your motherland;
  - Do not connect to science;
  - Know yourself.