

Event Manager

A photograph of a large crowd at a concert. The crowd is in the foreground, with many people raising their hands. In the background, a stage is visible with a large screen displaying a blue bokeh pattern. The scene is lit with blue and purple lights.

Who do they do

People who plan and lead the event. The event manager is an expert at the creative, technical and logistical elements that help event to succeed.

Event manager takes care of:

- Event design
- Audio-visual production
- Scriptwriting
- Logistics
- Budgeting
- Negotiation
- Client service

Categories of events

- Leisure events (leisure sport, music, recreation)
 - Cultural events (ceremonial, religious, art, heritage, and folklore)
 - Personal events (weddings, birthdays, anniversaries)
 - Organizational events (commercial, political, charitable, sales, product launch)
- A group of five people, three men and two women, are shown from the chest up, celebrating joyfully. They are surrounded by a thick shower of multi-colored confetti (red, yellow, blue, green, purple) that is falling all around them. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The people are dressed in semi-formal attire, including blouses, shirts, and ties. Their expressions are of happiness and excitement, with some looking towards the camera and others looking at each other.

The good sides of the job

Job security and great career development.

...bad sides

With so many responsibilities to keep on top of, you'll need to be more organized than a human octopus.
