

Extermination of fauna by human hands

Poaching in Kazakhstan

- 20 years ago in Kazakhstan, there were about 362 species of animals, now it's reduced to 257

- Now people started to hunt for fun and for sale

- For example, 20 years ago in Kazakhstan, there were 78 thousand heads of saiga
- now it has decreased by 35 thousand

- A close-up photograph of a ram's skull with large, spiraling horns lying on the ground in a grassy field. The horns are light brown and have a distinct ringed texture. The skull is positioned on the right side of the frame, and the horns extend towards the left. The background is a soft-focus field of green grass and some dry vegetation.
- people don't have to worry about what we leave to our child's, don't think about that's is too one of the treasure of Kazakhstan

- because of our cruelty, we do not see how our
- wildlife is dying

- we need to think about it,
- because without them our world is not full

A white goat with red horns is standing on a sandy beach. A hand-drawn black speech bubble is positioned above the goat's head, containing the text "I want to live". The goat has a slightly open mouth, as if speaking. The background is a bright, sandy beach with some sparse vegetation.

I want to live copypast.

- Just thinking about it
