Fairmont The Palm, Dubai

Palm Jumeirah – “8th Wonder of the World”

A man-made archipelago, Palm Jumeirah is formed in the shape of a palm tree. It consists of a trunk, a crown with 16 fronds, and a surrounding crescent island that forms an 11 kilometre (6.8 miles) long breakwater. The island is 5 by 5 kilometres (3.1 by 3.1 miles) and its total area is larger than 800 football pitches.

Exploring Dubai & Palm Jumeirah

- Aquaventure and Dolphin Bay: One of the Middle East’s largest water parks, boasting water-slides, children’s play areas and a one-of-a-kind dolphin experience
- Dubai Marina and The Jumeirah Walk: “The Walk” features café-style restaurants, offering relaxed, al fresco dining overlooking the marina and public beach
- Burj Khalifa: The world’s tallest building (at over 828 metres/2,700 feet), bringing unparalleled views of the city from its “At the Top” observation deck
- Mall of the Emirates: Includes a collection of boutiques – offering international brands and local treasures alike – and the first indoor ski slope in the Middle East
- Dubai Mall: Featuring more than 1,000 shops, as well as an aquarium, underwater zoo, ice rink and indoor theme park

Explore Dubai and the Palm Jumeirah

- Dubai Museum: Dedicated to presenting the traditional Dubai way of life, and itself a prized artifact – located in the Al Fahidi Fort (Dubai’s oldest existing building, built in 1787), and opened by the ruler of Dubai in 1971
- The Gold Souk – A traditional market in the heart of Dubai’s commercial district, boasting over 300 jewellery retailers
- Historic Dhow Cruises: Traditional sailing vessels, which were used in the Red Sea and Indian Ocean region to transport goods
- Bastakiya Quarter: An ecologically sound village along the banks of Dubai Creek
- Heritage and Diving Village: A traditional village that provides a glimpse into the UAE’s maritime past – from pearl trading to authentic pottery work
- Desert Safaris – To experience a glimpse of Bedouin life, a trip to the desert is a must
