

Family Life

Life away from home. Curse or blessing?

Prepared by

N. Popova (M1-12-1)

N. Shirinya (M1-12-1)

D. Ponomarenko (M1-12-2)

Quiz.

1) Do you live with your parents?

a) Yes;

б) No.

2) Have you something you don't like in this of life? If you have, call it.

a) Yes;

б) No.

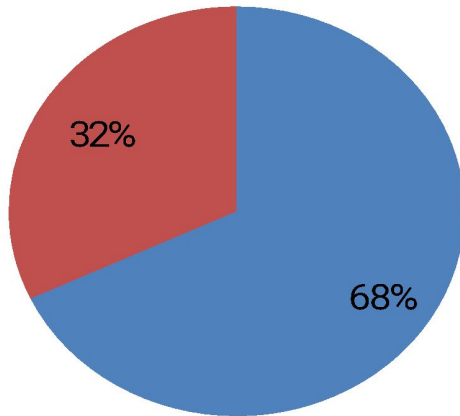

Quiz.

- 3) Call some pros of this lifestyle.
- 4) Do you want change something?
- 5) Are you satisfied your way of life?
- a) Yes;
- 6) No.

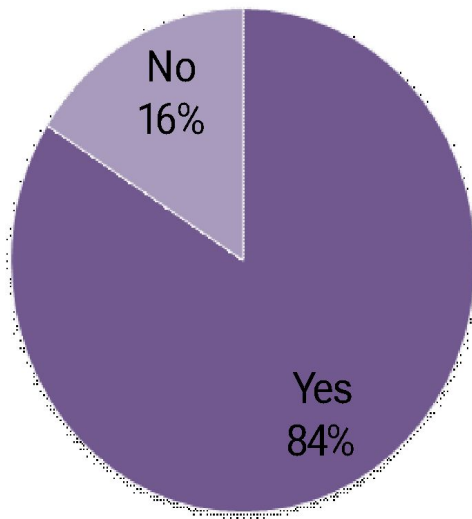

Result of survey.

1. Do you live with your parents?

32% - Live with parents;

68% - Live without parents.

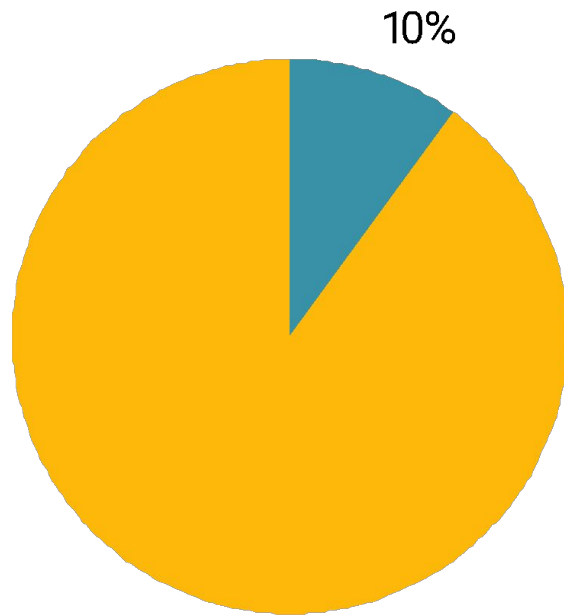

2. Do you want change something?

84% - Want to change something;

16% - Don't want.

Result of survey

3. Are you satisfied your way of life?

10% - Are satisfied the way of life;

90% - Aren't satisfied.

Pros and Cons. Life away from home

Pros

- Chance to learn to live independently;
- Absence parent control:
- Going to bed when you want to;
- Coming home late;
- Absence of control your studying.
- Etc.

Cons

- Inability to independently living;
- Absence of cooking skills;
- Difficulty in waking up;
- Inability to spending money;
- Absence of communication;
- Etc.

Pros and cons. Life at home.

Pros

- Inability to independently living;
- Absence of cooking skills;
- Difficulty in waking up;
- Etc.

Cons

- Chance to learn to live independently;
- Absence parent control:
- Going to bed when you want to;
- Coming home late;
- Absence of control your studying .
- Inability to spending money;
- Absence of communication;
- Etc.

We hope, our work will make students think about the problems, associated with life away from their parents, and help them to solve their problems.

Conclusion.

This project-work:

1. may be used by students for solving problems in their lives;
2. Can help students parents to understand their children.

