

A white rectangular card with a double-line border is tilted slightly to the right. It is placed on a black background. To the left of the card, a yellow sticky note is partially visible, overlapping the card's edge. The text on the card is centered and reads "Finance - Jobs in finance." in a black serif font.

Finance - Jobs in finance.

This exercises will help you differentiate between different types of finance-related jobs.

1. A _____ is someone who buys and sells stock.

- a) stockbroker
- b) stock-seller
- c) insurance broker

2. An insurance broker will help you find the best insurance _____ at the best price.

- a) politics
- b) policy
- c) tax

3. An tax consultant is someone who can _____ you on how to pay less tax.

- a) advise
- b) advance
- c) advocate

4. A tax-_____ (or "IRS auditor" in the USA) is someone who makes sure that you're paying enough taxes.

- a) official
- b) inspector
- c) broker

5. A company's finance _____ (also known as a CFO) is usually that company's chief accountant.

- a) official
- b) boss
- c) director

6. A bank _____ is a bank employee who deals directly with most customers.

- a) guard
- b) inspector
- c) teller/cashier

7. A bank manager is the person responsible for a particular _____ of a bank.

- a) branch
- b) building
- c) inspection

8. A financial advisor is someone who advises people on how to _____ their finances. (= financial affairs)

a) advise

b) manage

c) keep

9. My _____ always prepares my tax return for me.

a) trader

b) inspector

c) accountant

10. A venture capitalist is basically _____.

a) an investor

b) an accountant

c) a manager