

House of representatives

The house of representatives has 435 members

The House meets in the south wing of the US Capitol

The representative must be:

- At least 25 years old
- US citizen for 7 years
- Live in the State he's chosen from

The House is presided over by the Speaker

The House of representatives has power:

- To raise money by means of taxes and borrowing
- To make rules for trade with foreign countries and between states
- To set up post offices and federal ports
- To declare war

There are 20 committees in the House. They are responsible for:

- Agriculture and forestry
- Space and science
- Banking and currency
- Finance
- Commerce
- Etc