

How to Choose a Career Path?

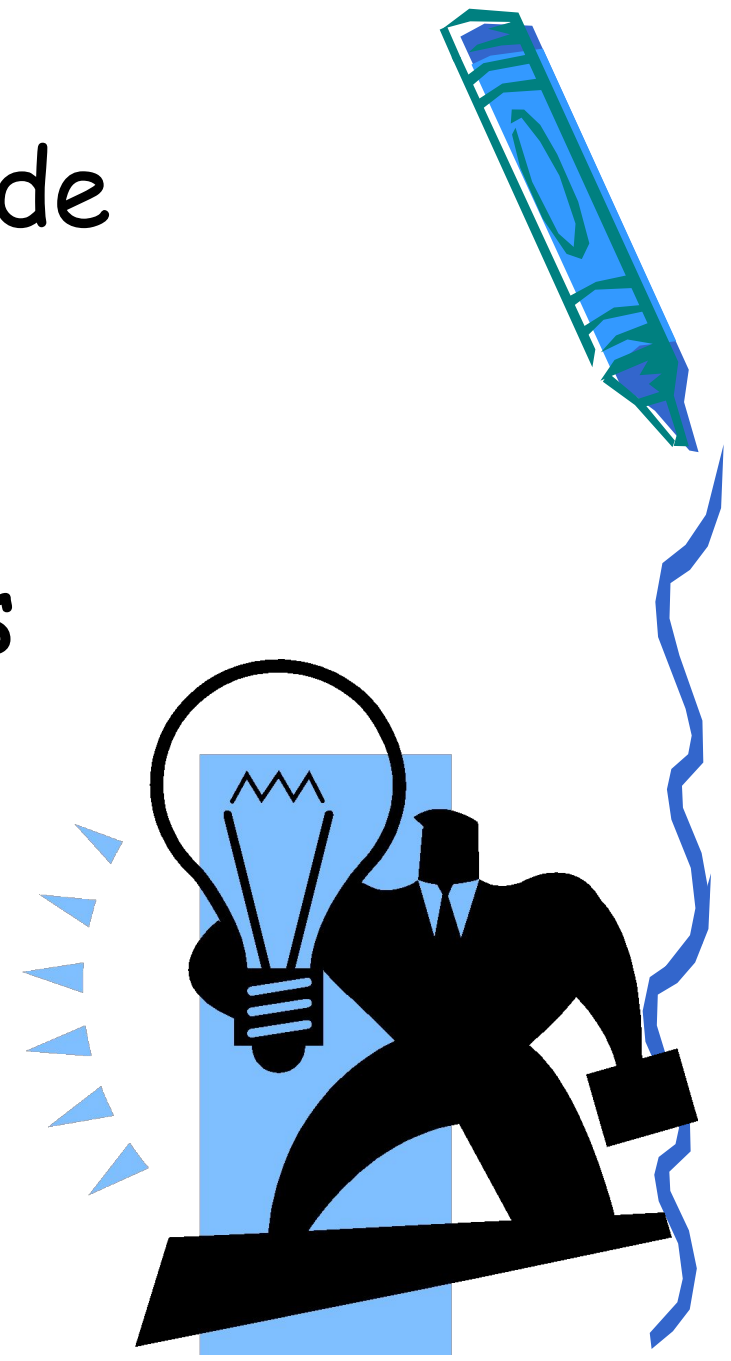

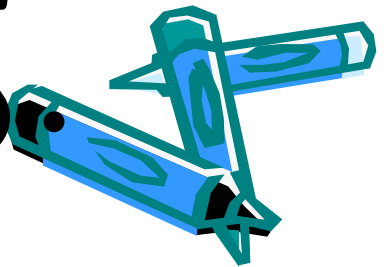

The best way to predict
the future is to create it
Abraham Lincoln

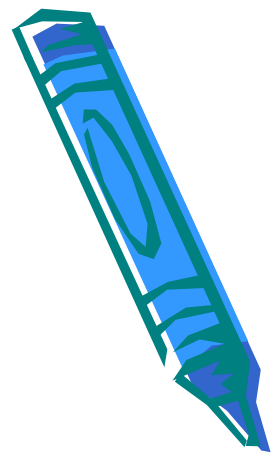

- Four Ways to Decide career for you

- 5 Fun Career Paths

- Questions

Four Ways to Decide What career Is Right for you

- 1- Know Yourself
- 2- Explore Career Fields
- 3- Learn Universal Knowledge and Skills.
- 4- Turning Hobbies into Career

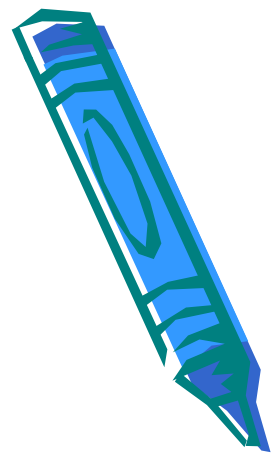

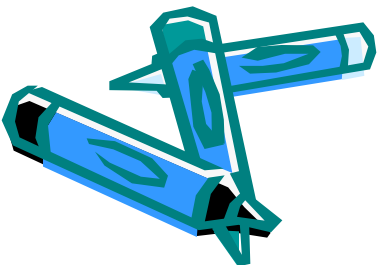

Know Yourself

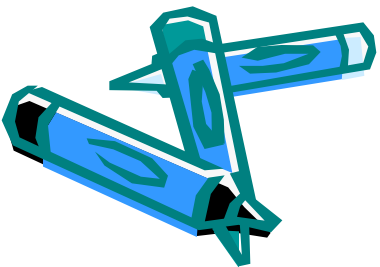

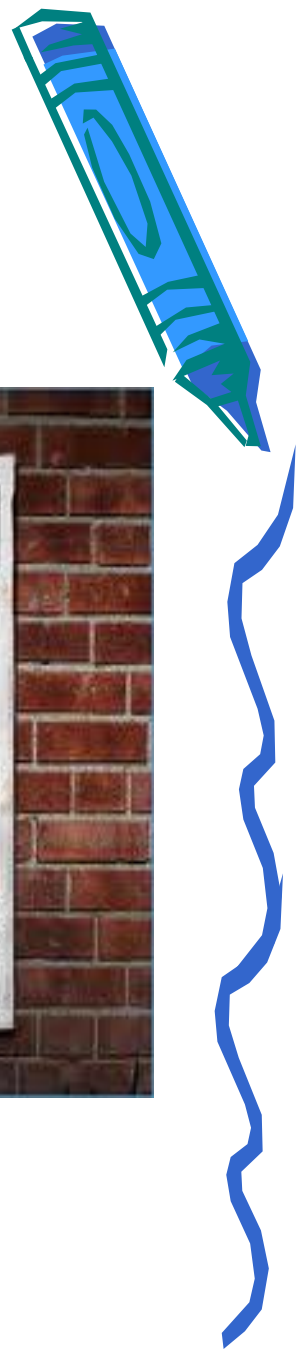

To know what you would be good at and enjoy doing, you need to understand yourself.

Take a personality assessment test. Many of these tests are available that match your personal traits with possible career choices.

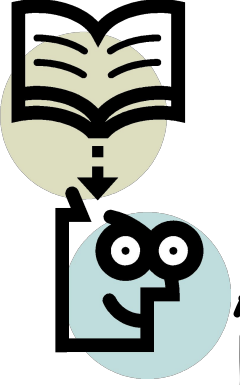

Explore Career Fields

Many careers exist today that most people would never consider. Talk with a career counselor at your high school or college. Try interning, volunteering or shadowing a professional in a field that interested you.

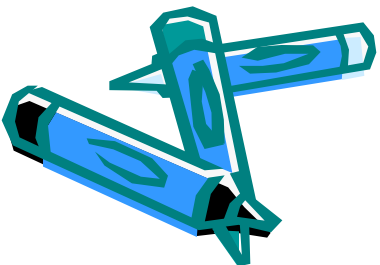

Learn Universal Knowledge and Skills.

A broad education and basic skills can help you find success in almost any career.

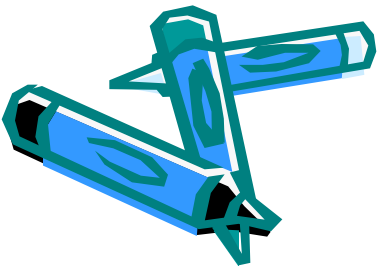

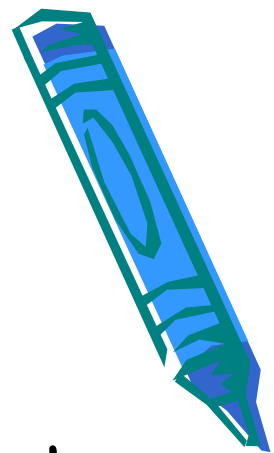

A general understanding of a variety of subject is always useful.

A diverse knowledge base and strong skill set will ensure an easier career transition in the future.

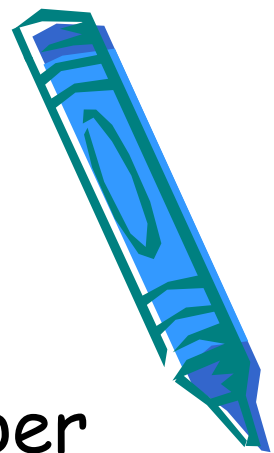

Turning Hobbies into Career

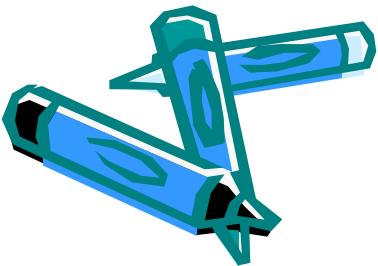

If you love decoration your home, take some art decoration classes. The idea is to take what you already enjoy doing and try to incorporate those interests into a career that you can be happy with right now.

5 Fun Career Paths

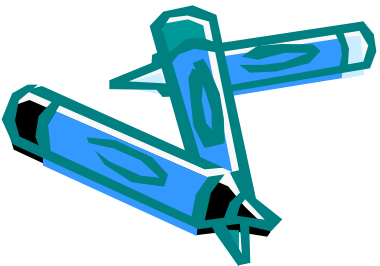

- Personal Shopper
If you specialize in services to the elderly or you cater to white-collar workers who have little fashion sense, you still get paid to help people while indulging in your favorite hobby.

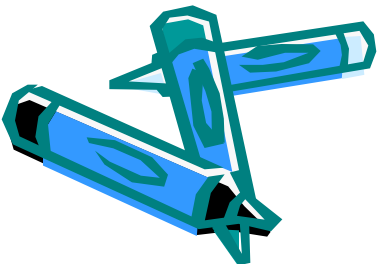

- Video Game Designer

If you play video games and you think to yourself, "I could create a better game than that" then becoming a video game designer may well be right up your alley. Besides being fun, video game designer is a very lucrative field.

- Baker

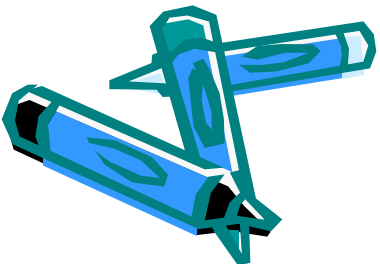

Are you a foodie who craves rich desserts and likes to add a little creative style to everything you bake? If so, you'll find that a career in the baking industry offers a lot of different options, pays well, and you get the benefit of taste-tasting your scrumptious creations as well

- Home Stager

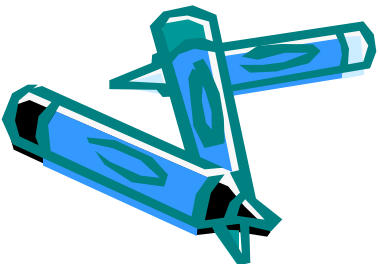

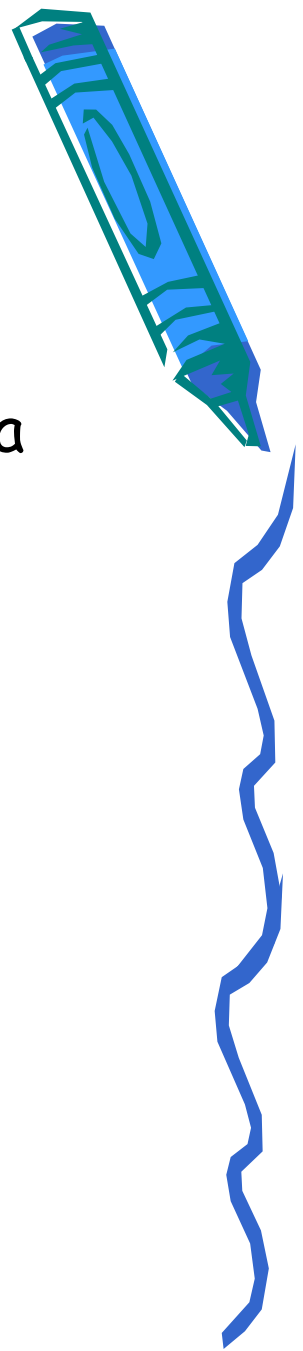

If you have a flair for decorating and love setting up furniture, this could be the perfect job for you. The Home Stager rely on home stagers to help them de-clutter the house, decorate it and give them tips on how to best present it to prospective buyers.

Movie Reviewer

Do you love movies and you have a way with words? If so, you can easily start a career as a movie reviewer. Many people start out writing reviews for free on popular websites.

Questions?

