hit the road

to begin traveling; to leave a place; to go away.

- 1.We've got a long way to go. Let's hit the road to make it by sunset.
 - 2. It's time for me to hit the road; it is getting late.

drive someone up the (a) wall

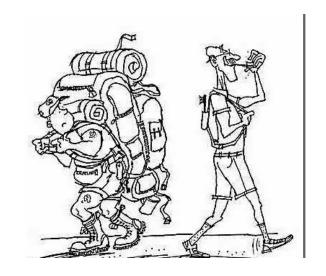

to irritate or annoy someone; to make a person very angry or bored; to infuriate.

- 1. Her persistent nagging drove me up the wall.
- 2. My children always drive me up a wall when they are tired and in a bad mood.

travel light

to bring very few things with you when you go on a trip

- 1. My new car has lots of cargo space, which is great for people like me who don't travel light.
- 2. Everything is simpler when you travel light.

to throw someone under the bus to reject or betray (someone); to treat as a scapegoat; to put out of favor or at a disadvantag

- 1. Ruby Red, I didn't have time to do the business report, so I threw you under the bus and told the boss it was your job instead.
- 2. Every time the president gets in trouble, he'll throw another cabinet member under the bus.

(go down) a rocky road

(go through) a difficult period of time, have problems

- 1.Bob has been going down quite a rocky road since his divorce.
- 2. Analysts predict a rocky road ahead for the economy.

sail (right) through something

go through something very quickly and easily

- 1. Because I had studied for so long, I was able to sail through the exam.
- 2. The kids just sailed right through the ice-cream and cake.